ENTIRE CITY IS DOOMED TO DESTRUCTION

Nob Hill Invaded by the Flames and Grace Church Burns.

BUT 250 ARE DEAD

Dynamiting Whole Rows of Residences Does Not Avail and City Still Burns.

OVER 300,000 ARE HOMELESS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 19.—There is practically no hope of saving any of the city. Those most sanguine of the ultimate success of the firemen have now given up hope and are fleeing from their homes in despair.

Chief of Police Dinan tonight said 250 would fully cover the number of dead. About 50 bodies have thus far been found. There was considerable shooting of looters today, but the offenders escaped with wounds.

NO ADDITIONS ARE MADE TO DEATH LIST

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Except for an occasional accident, there has been no additional loss of life reported since yesterday. People have had time to leave the burning districts, though most of them have lost all their belongings.

It was decided at noon to blow up all the residences on the east side of Van Ness avenue, between Golden Gate avenue and Pacific avenue, a distance of one mile. Van Ness avenue is one of the most fashionable streets of the city and it is very wide. It was hoped to check the flames at that point, but the efforts were unavailing and the fire continued to spread.

The fire has spread over the crest of the Nob Hill residence section, and is destroying the mansions of the millionaires.

Is the City Desolate.

San Francisco is tonight the city desolate. It seemed the acme of its misery was reached at dusk when flames burst from all sides of the Hotel Fairmount, the structure that above every other was apparently most strongly entrenched against the attack of the all-consuming fire. And surrounding that lofty pinnacle of flame, as far as the eyes could see to the south, to the east and far out to the west lay in cruel fantastic heaps, charred and smoking, all that remained of a prosperous city. The metropolis of the Pacific coast was in ashes.

This has been another day of an uneven struggle of man against an unconquerable element. Acre after acre has been reduced to dust and ashes despite the heroic perseverance of the firemen in efforts to limit the conflagration.

Tonight there was a hope that the worst had been nearly reached, and that when tomorrow dawned the end would come. But the hope was faint and was based on the belief that the flames might be barred from the western addition. But this faint hope faded when it became known that all efforts to check the spread at Van Ness avenue by blowing up a mile of buildings on the east of Van Ness avenue had proved fruitless. The fire has spread across the broad thoroughfare and from present indications the entire western addition, which contains the homes of San Francisco's wealthier class, is now doomed. The destruction of the western addition of the city completes the work of the ravgaing flames and marks the devastation of the entire city.

Three Distinct Fires Burning.

Tonight three distinct fires were burning. One was in the territory that extends from Nob hill easterly towards the water front. It was traveling slowly northerly towards the Telegraph hill section, and may die out from lack of material, or may sweep towards the extreme water front. The second center was in the Mission district. Here the fire had reached Eighteenth street, but was making little headway towards the hillsides to the west, where thousands of people are camped.

The third and most dangerous fire is that threatening the western part of the city. This is really a continuation of the Nob hill fire. It is wedge-shaped, with the apex pushing forward. This is the point against which the firemen are bending their greatest efforts. Dynamite was used for back-firing purposes with only fair success. Tonight many blocks may be blown up.

The Southern Pacific hospital at Fourteenth and Mission streets has been dynamited, the patients having been removed to places of safety. The Linda Vista and the Pleasanton, two large family hotels, on Jones street, in the better part of the city, have been blown up to stay the progress of the conflagration.

Practically all of San Francisco has been burned or is burning.

Sergeant Rinkley, U. S. A., said at 5 o'clock this afternoon:

"Everything out Market street to about

PITTSBURGH'S FIRST OFFERING $60,000.00.

With characteristic liberality and without awaiting the formality of a plea for aid by a stricken people, citizens of Pittsburgh yesterday loosened their purse-strings to offer aid to their stricken fellow-citizens on the Pacific coast, and ere the day passed $60,000 had been subscribed.

From the interest and sympathy shown yesterday at a public meeting of citizens held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, and presided over by Mayor Guthrie, indications are that the money subscribed will be but the seed from which an enormous local fund will grow. The newspapers of the city have been appointed official soliciting agents on behalf of Mayor Guthrie and a committee of 21 who will have charge of all contributions.

The Carnegie Hero fund, through its president, Charles L. Taylor, telegraphed $25,000 to the disposal of Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco yesterday morning. Upwards of $23,000 was subscribed at the public meeting held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, while The Gazette was in receipt of upwards of $4,700.

Last night Mayor Guthrie received a check for $5,000 as the contribution of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of Pittsburgh. The Scottish Rite bodies, at a meeting last night, pledged to hold themselves in readiness to meet any further donations for the relief of their Masonic brethren. The Triennial conclave met in San Francisco last year, and the royal welcome tendered by the Knights Templar has not been forgotten.

Other societies and organizations, as well as hundreds of business men, were preparing their contributions last night, and a conservative estimate of Pittsburgh's donation to San Francisco is that a quarter of a million dollars will be contributed by the citizens of this vicinity.

The Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies have volunteered their services free of cost in transmitting messages relating to the relief of sufferers at San Francisco when offered by regularly constituted relief organizations, or public officers acting in an official capacity. M. H. Pickering is arranging to send a special train-load of provisions from this city to San Francisco. Hyde & Behman, owners of the Gayety theater, and Rice & Barton, proprietors of the company performing in that theater this week, will donate all the receipts of today's matinee to the local relief fund. The usual prices will prevail. Harry Davis, manager of the Grand opera house, has volunteered to give the entire gross receipts of next Friday's matinee, April 27, to the local benefit fund, and will place tickets for sale at all the leading hotels and cigar stands.

LOS ANGELES SUFFERS SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE

Nervous Residents Alarmed at Shock Which Does No Damage and Doesn't Last Long.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—At 12:33 o'clock this afternoon Los Angeles experienced a distinct earthquake shock of short duration. No damage was done, but thousands of people were frightened. Occupants of office buildings, especially of tall structures, ran out into the streets hatless. Many stores were deserted in like manner by customers and clerks.

The shock passed soon and most of those who had fled returned to the buildings. The San Francisco horror has strung the populace here to a high tension, and sultry weather serves to increase the general nervousness.

G. E. Franklin, head of the United States Weather bureau in this city, in his report of the quake, 10 minutes after it occurred, said:

"There was nothing at all unusual in the shock. It was of hardly sufficient strength to move the pendulum of the large clock in my office, and consisted of a single undulation. The quake seemed to be moving from north to south."

EARTHQUAKES IN MICHIGIAN.

One Man Killed in a Mine—Buildings, Rocks and Chimneys Fall.

CALUMET, MICH., April 19.—An earthquake shock, which was felt distinctly throughout Hancock county, and was most pronounced in the Quincy mine, killed Timothy Leary and injured four others while working one mile below the earth's surface in that property today.

In numerous buildings rocked, chimneys fell and dishes rattled, terrifying the citizens and causing scores of men, women and children to rush from their homes. Many miners on the day shift refused to go below again.

MONEY AND PROVISIONS GO FROM LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Contributions to the relief fund have passed the $100,000 mark. Seventeen cars laden with provisions, started for San Francisco tonight. The county of Los Angeles gave $50,000. A boat load of provisions started tonight from San Pedro.

Are United for the Second Time.

MEADVILLE, PA., April 19.—(Special.)—John Dunlap, 81 years old, of Atlantic, and Mrs. Jeannette Dunlap, 56 years old, of Exposition, were married today in Meadville by Alderman Lockhart. They were divorced a year ago and since that time had been living in the same neighborhood.

Although it is known several hundred persons from Pittsburgh and vicinity were in San Francisco at the time of the disaster and although it is reported that three from this locality met death, no definite word has been received by local relatives of the supposed victims—the clogged telegraph wires and the confusion in San Francisco being responsible. RUINS STREW SITES OF THE COAST TOWNS

No Locations Near San Francisco Escape Damage by Earthquake.

ALL NEEDING AID

At San Jose Ten Were Killed. Santa Rosa Has 10,000 Homeless Residents.

MANY BUILDINGS COLLAPSE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OAKLAND, Cal., April 19.—Not a town around San Francisco has escaped damage by earthquake. At Redwood City all business buildings are in ruins. The new Carnegie library is totally destroyed.

At Alameda, the terra cotta and sewer-pipe plant of Clark & Sons is in ruins. The huge chimney caved in, crushing the machinery beneath. The employes had several narrow escapes from death as a result of the earthquake. The East Side boulevard, along the east side of Lake Merritt, has sunk beneath the water.

One man taken out of the Hotel Rose at Santa Rosa this morning had his clothing cut clear down one side, and a deep flesh wound from a blow of an ax in the hands of a rescuer.

Berkeley houses are almost chimneyless this morning. No buildings have collapsed, but several are badly cracked. All the books in the University library were thrown from the shelves. Many residents of Berkeley packed their belongings and fled to the hills. Hundreds of families are now camped on the hills.

Latest estimates from Santa Rosa state that fully 10,000 people are homless. State aid will be necessary for the victims.

Santa Rosa Dead 500.

C. A. Duffy of Owensboro, Ky., was the only one of several score to escape from his floor of the St. Rose hotel, at Santa Rosa. He came to Oakland on a motor cycle. Mr. Duffy says when the shock came, he rushed for the stairway, but the building was swaying and shaking so that he turned back. He threw himself in front of a dresser to protect himself from falling timbers. The dresser held up the beams which tumbled over him. He was imprisoned five hours before being rescued.

According to Mr. Duffy there were about 300 persons killed in the destruction of the three hotels of Santa Rosa, and not fewer than 500 in the whole town of Santa Rosa. The business section of Santa Rosa collapsed inside of five minutes. Then the fire burned Fourth street from one end to the other, starting at each end and meeting in the middle, thus sweeping over the ruins and burning the imprisoned people. Santa Rosa is 75 miles north of San Francisco.

Ten Killed at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, CAL., April 19.—Latest reports today show that 10 persons were killed by the earthquake in San Jose. The Hall of Records is destroyed, as well as the Hall of Justice. All the main buildings are damaged. R. H. Tucker, in charge of the Lick observatory, says:

"No damage was done to the instruments or the buildings of the observatory by the earthquake.

SALINAS, CAL., April 19.—This town suffered from three distinct earthquake shocks shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Although today's earthquakes have done very little damage in Salinas, the inhabitants are greatly disturbed and fear a repetition of Wednesday's disaster which did so much damage to property.

RICH WOMEN HEAVY LOSERS.

Property of Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt Jr., Is Destroyed.

NEW YORK, April 19.—(Special.)—Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., daughters of James G. Fair, who left them big real estate holdings in San Francisco, will probably be the heaviest losers among New York residents through the earthquake and resulting fires which, it is reported, have wiped out the greater part of their realty holdings there.

Their joint loss, if early estimates are correct, will probably amount upward of $3,000,000, and may reach even more. Among their principal realty holdings was the Rialto office building, which only recently was taken in exchange for the Fairmont hotel. It is also believed from reports of the spread of the fire, that the "Nob Hill" property owned by the two sisters will be a total loss.

ENTIRE CITY IS DOOMED

Twenty-third street is burning fiercely. Everything is gone except the mint. The postoffice was injured only by the earthquake. Only three or four rooms there are damaged. Every building of any importance in the city up to Van Ness avenue, including the entire business section and all the hotels have been entirely destroyed, and the district running north from Golden Gate avenue and lying between Van Ness avenue and Octavia street also has been burned. Chinatown is gone. The fire is raging on Nob Hill. I hear that parts of Nob Hill are entirely wiped out. The fire has crossed Van Ness avenue east of Union street and everything in that district is gone.

Entire City Will Burn.

"Certain parts of Nob Hill are untouched although very seriously threatened. The fire is raging around Union and Franklin streets, with every prospect of continuing. It now looks as if the entire city will be burned before the fire stops. A section bounded by Union and Octavia streets and Golden Gate avenue, and another lying between Market, Hayes and Fillmore streets are about all that is left of the city north of Market street. There is a section in the Missions district, south of Market street which has not yet been burned. The prospects are, however, that it will go, because nothing can stop the flames until they reach the straggling outskirts of the city."

At 7:30 tonight the fire was still under headway, gaining force and spreading. All efforts to fight it proved futile. Over 300,000 are homeless. By Saturday San Francisco will be an ash heap.

The fire marshal of San Francisco says more than two-thirds of the area of the city of San Francisco has been destroyed, and there is no possibility of saving the rest of the city. The following is the district north of Market street now devastated: Sanson to Market street, to Sacramento, to Buchanan, thence to California, to Hyde, to Eddy, to Larkin, to Gough and to Market. On the south side of Market street, the fire extends along Market street to Fourteenth and below the Southern Pacific tracks to the boundary.

The sub-treasury has been destroyed. The sub-treasury is not connected with the United States mint, which is still standing.

Grace Church in Flames.

The last structure to burst into flames was Grace church, Stockton and California streets. The entire district from Broadway to Channel and from the water front to Octavia and Golden Gate avenue, is a mass of flames.

The San Francisco hotel was one of the last big buildings to take fire. It is located at the corner of Geary and Powell streets, but had been missed in the immense path of destruction. Fire did not cross Market street at O'Farrell and Eddy until long after the surrounding sections had been consumed.

The flames seem entirely beyond control of the fire fighters and to be possessed of demoniacal fury, leaping everywhere, jumping the widest chasms, bursting out in wild rage in places thought beyond damage. Workers have destroyed block after block of residences with dynamite in the hope of hemming in the flames, but after each such effort the terrific blaze would leap across the seeming impassable gulf and in triumphant glare defy its opponents.

The evacuation of Chinatown continued early this morning. Many Chinese are crazy from fright and are running wildly about. Others loaded down with belongings are making for the ocean beach.

Many have been killed and injured in trying to escape. The wounded are left lying in the streets, it being impossible for hospital corps to render any aid. Many wounded will burn to death. Hundreds of Chinese reached the ferry in a roundabout way and are leaving for interior towns.

Express wagons rent at $50 an hour, but when the soldiers catch teamsters charging this rate the teams are confiscated.

Water and Food Scarce.

There is no drinking water to be had except at the Presidio and in a few private wells. It is being carted to Black Point, where a majority of the residents are. There is also great scarcity of food.

Old landmarks made famous by association with the early history of California, as well as the new monuments to the commercial prosperity of California's metropolis, have been wiped out of existence by fire. One of the first landmarks to fall a prey to the flames was the Palace hotel, known the world over to travelers. It was built in the '70s by James Ralston, at a cost of $8,000,000, and was owned by the Sharon estate.

At Post street and Grant avenue, stood the Bohemian club, one of the widest known social organizations in the world. Its membership includes many men famous in art, literature and commerce. Its rooms were decorated with the works of members, many of whose names are known wherever paintings are discussed and many of them priceless in their associations. Most of these were saved. There were on special exhibition in the "Jinks" room of the Bohemian club a dozen paintings by old masters, including a Rembrandt, a Diaz, a Murillo and others, probably worth $100,000. These paintings were lost.

Fine Buildings Destroyed.

The Olympic club, Post and Mason streets, the oldest regularly organized athletic association in the United States and famous for its appointments and for the number of athletes it has developed, was burned to a skeleton. The building was worth $300,000 and its furnishings were of the finest quality.

The great new Flood building, built by James Flood at a cost of $4,000,000, and occupied about a year ago; the new Merchants' Exchange building in California street, erected at a cost of $2,500,000; the Crocker building at Montgomery and Market streets, worth $1,000,000; the Mills building at Bush and Montgomery streets, costing $1,000,000; the new Shreve building at Post street and Grant avenue, cost $2,000,000 and occupied in April 1, by the largest jewelry store on the coast, are some of the new structures destroyed by the flames. The above jewelry company carried a stock worth $2,000,000.

On Market street, the Phelan building, one of the earliest attempts at a pretentious work of architecture in the business district and covering the most valuable pieces of real estate in San Francisco, is gone. The great group of municipal buildings, standing on a piece of ground bounded by Larkin, McAllister and Grove streets, erected by the city of San Francisco at a cost of $7,000,000 and known as the city and county buildings, are now a mass of smouldering ruins. With the buildings were probably destroyed the city and county records.

Occidental Hotel Destroyed.

The Occidental hotel on Montgomery street, for years the headquarters for army officers; the old Lick house, built by the philanthropist, James Lick; the Old Russ house, also on Montgomery street; the Nevada National bank block; the Hayward building at California and Montgomery, a modern structure of 10 stories; the severe Gothic style California National bank, the First National bank, the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the London and San Francisco bank on California street, the London, Paris and American bank, and the Bank of British North America, on Sansome street; the large German Savings bank, also on California street—these are a few of the notable buildings destroyed in that region.

The California hotel and theater on Busch street, near Montgomery, the Grand opera house on Mission street, where the Conried Grand Opera Company had just opened for a series of two weeks' opera; the Orpheum, the Columbia, the Alcazar, the Majestic, the Central and Fishers were some of the playhouses destroyed.

Among the splendid apartment houses destroyed are: On Geary street—The St. Augustine, the Alexandria, the Victoria; on Sutter—The Pleasanton, the Aberdeen, the Waldeck, the Granada; on Pine street—The Colonial, the Lomavista, the Buena Vista; on Ellis street—The Dufferin, the Hamilton, the Ellis, the Royal, the Hart, the Ascot and St. Catherine; on O'Farrell street—The Eugene, the Knox, the St. George, the Ramon, the Gotham; on Taylor street—The Abbey; on Eddy street—The Abbotsford; on Turk street—The Netherlands; on Polk street—The Savoy; on Bush street—The Plymouth.

Pup and Poodle Dog Gone.

San Francisco was famous for its restaurants. Among them were the "Pup" and Marchand's, on Stockton street; the Poodle Dog, Zinkand's and the Fiesta. They are no more.

At the junction of Kearney, Market and Geary streets stood the three great newspaper buildings of San Francisco—the Call (Spreckles), the Examiner and the Chronicle. All were destroyed.

Two blocks north, on Kearney street, were the Bulletin and the Post buildings. They also are gone.

Among the large department stores destroyed are the Emporium and Hales & Fragers, on Market street; on Kearney street the White House, O'Connor & Moffatt's, Newman & Levinson, Roos Brothers, Raphaels, the Hub and many lesser establishments; on Geary street were the Davis, the City of Paris; Samuels, on Post street; Vel Strauss, on Sansome street, as well as Wallace's, Nathan Dohrman & Co. and Bullock & Jones.

Naval Training Station on San Francisco Bay Is Not Seriously Damaged. Marine Uniforms Destroyed.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Secretary Bonaparte this afternoon cabled Admiral McCalla, commanding the Mare Island navy yard to confer with Gen. Funston at San Francisco and transfer stores and provisions to him. Capt. Perkins, in command of the naval training station on San Francisco bay, telegraphs that the training station is not seriously damaged. The war department tonight directed the shipment of 500 stewards' tents from Fort Sheridan, Chicago, to San Francisco.

Capt. Powell, of the Marine corps, who has charge of the books and property of the corps at the headquarters in San Francisco tonight, telegraphed Gen. Elliott, commandant of the Marine corps, that the books, supplies and all effects have been destroyed by fire. In the Marine quartermaster's storehouse about $100,000 worth of uniforms and clothing were destroyed.

EARTHQUAKE'S FEATURE IS ITS ROTARY MOTION

Director A. O. Leuschner Gives Record of Disturbance as Shown by Seismograph.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

OAKLAND, CAL., April 19.—A. O. Leuschner, director of the Students' observatory of the University of California, today, gave the following record of the earthquake:

"The principal part of the earthquake came in two sections, the first series of vibrations lasting for about 40 seconds. The vibrations diminished gradually during the following 10 seconds and then occurred with renewed vigor for about 25 seconds more. But even at noon the disturbance has not as yet subsided, as slight shocks are recorded at frequent intervals on the seismograph. The motion was from south southeast to north northwest.

"The remarkable feature of this earthquake aside from its intensity was its rotary motion. As seen from the print, the sum total of all displacements represents a very regular eclipse and some of the lines representing the earth's motion can be traced along the whole circumference. The three severest earthquakes on record in this vicinity are those of October 21, 1868, March 30, 1898, and that of today. The result of observation indicates that our heaviest shocks are in the direction south southeast to north northwest.

"In that respect the records of the three heaviest earthquakes agree entirely. But they have several other features in common. One of these is that while today's displacements are very large, the vibration period is comparatively slow, amounting to about one second in the last two big earthquakes."

LOOTERS SHOT ON SIGHT.

Military Strictly Obey Orders for Summary Execution of Thieves Plying Their Vocation.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The military is unusually strict in observing the enforcement of the order to shoot all looters. One man on Market street who was found digging in the ruin of a jewelry shop was discovered by a naval reserve and fired upon three times. The fellow sought safety in flight but the reserve man brought him down by running a bayonet through him. The bodies of three thieves were found lying in the streets on the south side this forenoon.

It is impossible to verify the many reports of shooting. Corrected action of any kind in fact is out of the question and almost every official is acting on his own responsibility, it being a physical impossibility to communicate with superior authorities.

GOVERNMENT FEARS FOR SAFETY OF WARSHIPS

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Some concern is felt at the navy department as to the fate of the Union Iron Works in San Francisco. There are under construction there three government warships, the armored cruiser California, the armored cruiser South Dakota, a sister, and the protected cruiser Milwaukee, 9,700 tons. Vessels on the stocks are much more exposed to disaster than ships afloat in case of earthquake or fire, and the loss of such craft as these would be very seriously felt.

First Subscription Is $10,000.

DETROIT, MICH., April 19.—Col. F. J. Hecker, in behalf of the Detroit board of commerce today, wired Gov. Pardee, of California, that the board of commerce holds a fund of $10,000 ready to be forwarded on instructions from Gov. Pardee to be used for the sufferers from the California earthquake and fire.

Special Session to Be Called.

OAKLAND, CAL., April 19.—It is said tonight that Gov. Pardee will issue a call for a special session of the legislature to relieve the distress occasioned by the calamity which has overtaken San Francisco.

RED CROSS SHOULD GET GENERAL AID

President Roosevelt Issues Proclamation to Nation and Expresses His Sorrow.

INSTRUCTIONS ARE GIVEN

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—President Roosevelt, after a conference with Miss Mabel Boardman, of the American National Red Cross, today issued in the form of a proclamation, an appeal to the American people for aid for the people of San Francisco. He asked that all contributions be made through the officials of the American National Red Cross who have effected systematic arrangement for the distribution of the needed assistance. The full text of the President's proclamation follows:

In the face of so terrible and appalling a national calamity as that which has befallen San Francisco, the outpouring of the nation's aid should, as far as possible, be entrusted to the American Red Cross, the nation's organization best fitted to undertake such relief work. A specially appointed Red Cross agent, Dr. Edward Devine, starts today from New York for California to co-operate there with the Red Cross branch in the work of relief.

In order that this work may be well systematized and in order that the contributions which I am sure will follow in with lavish generosity, may be wisely administered, I appeal to the people of the United States, to all cities, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, relief committees and individuals to express their sympathy and render their aid by contributions to the American National Red Cross. They can be sent to the Hon. Charles Hallam Keep, Red Cross treasurer, Washington, D. C., Mr. Jacob H. Schiff, New York Red Cross treasurer, or other local Red Cross treasurers, to be forwarded by telegraph from Washington to the Red Cross agents and officers in California.

(Signed) THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
WHITE HOUSE.

When President Roosevelt learned with deep regret of the wrecking of the buildings of the University of California and of the Leland Stanford university by the earthquake today, he sent the following telegrams of sympathy:

WASHINGTON, April 19, 1906.
President B. I. Wheeler, Berkeley, California:

I earnestly hope the University of California has not suffered as much as is reported. I share the horror and grief of the country at the disaster that has befallen California.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
WHITE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, April 19, 1906.
President David Starr Jordan, Stanford university, California:

Am inexpressibly shocked by the dreadful calamity that has befallen California and have deep personal concern and sympathy over the destruction of the buildings of Leland Stanford. I most earnestly hope that things are not as bad as they are reported.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The National Park bank today transferred to San Francisco through the sub-treasury between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 in gold. M. Guggenheim's Sons today notified Gen. Funston that they had contributed $50,000 for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers.

Frenchman Gives $10,000.

WASHINGTON—A subscription of $10,000 for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers was made today by Mr. Robert Lebaudy, the French philanthropist, through the French ambassador.

SYSTEMATIC RELIEF IS ARRANGED BY SCHMITZ

Mayor and Safety Committee Caring for Hungry and Aiding Flight of Refugees.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The committee of safety, consisting of fifty prominent citizens, met with Mayor Schmitz this morning and organized a finance committee composed of James N. Phelan, F. W. Hellman, Claus Spreckles, J. Downey Harvey, Thomas Magee, J. L. Flood, Wm. Babcock, W. F. Herrin, M. H. DeYoung and Robert J. Tobin. Before the meeting had organized Claus Spreckles gave $25,000; Rudolph Spreckles, $10,000; Harry Tevis, $10,000; Gordon Blanding, $10,000; Eleanor Martin, $5,000; J. L. Flood, $5,000½ with a promise of more.

Mayor Schmitz announced that the water company promised a supply of water this afternoon in the western addition and in the Mission tomorrow. Committees were appointed to take charge of the relief of the destitute and the work has already assumed some system.

Golden Gate park is the main refuge and supplies will be sent there. Boats are being provided to take people across the bay and thousands are availing themselves of the privilege. The University of California at Berkley has volunteered to take care of 2,000.

Mayor Schmitz has appointed his committee of 50 citizens special officers, with full power to represent him and with power to requisition men, supplies, vehicles and boats for public use.

Unless supplies are rushed and arrangements made for their distribution trouble is feared within a few days. Even men of wealth cannot obtain food with all their money. Gens. Funston and Sumner, in command of the federal troops, are rendering great service. Refugees who go to the Presidio are being taken care of, but the number that can be accommodate is limited.

PARDEE ASKS FOR FOOD.

Train Load of Canned Goods Is Wired for by Train Official in the Stricken City.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., April 19.—E. E. Calvin, general manager of the Southern Pacific at San Francisco, this afternoon wired Superintendent Ingram to get a special train, buy a load of canned goods and send them to San Francisco at the earliest possible moment.

Calvin says conditions in the stricken city are so appalling as to be beyond belief or comprehension. Gov. Pardee has wired Mayor McAleer in behalf of Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco to send all provisions possible to San Francisco at once. Mayor McAleer has been endeavoring to communicate with Mayor Schmitz since the catastrophe occurred, but has not been able to get a message delivered.

FIRE WORKS MOST RUIN.

Gov. Pardee Says Only Small Portion of State Was Affected by Earthquake.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., April 19.—Gov. Pardee today sent the following dispatch to Gov. Folk of Missouri, in reply to an offer of aid for San Francisco:

"Thanks for your offer of help. There are thousands of homeless people in San Francisco and other towns and food and shelter must be furnished. At the same time the people of the east should understand that the area affected by the earthquake is only about one-fifteenth of the whole state. The great Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and all the northern and southern portions of the state escaped the disaster. In San Francisco most of the ruin was wrought by fire, and not by earthquake."

Send 3,500 Tents to Coast.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Pursuant to the order issued this morning by Secretary Taft of the war department, the quartermaster's department in this city today shipped to San Francisco 3,500 conical tents, all that were available in the Philadelphia depot.

You can always depend upon it. Pilene positively cures Piles. All druggists sell it.

BERKELEY IS FEEDING MANY OF THE REFUGEES

Campus of University of California Becomes a Tenting Ground for Homeless Victims.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BERKELEY, CAL., April 19.—The work of providing meals and sleeping accommodations for the large number of refugees pouring into Berkeley by every train from San Francisco was heartily carried on today and tonight by university and townspeople alike. President Wheeler has thrown open the grounds of the University of California to the refugees from the burning city across the bay, and the churches are supplying food.

Meals will be served from a great tent which has been erected under the campus oaks, while sleeping accommodations will be provided by strewing the baseball grounds with a deep layer of straw. If the weather proves inclement the homeless will have the opportunity of sleeping in Harmon gymnasium. Tents will also be placed on the campus. Churches and houses are open to many.

The women of Berkeley are baking all the bread they can, as there is danger of a distressing bread famine in San Francisco.

Medical attention for a large number of persons injured in the San Francisco earthquake and subsequent fire is provided in Berkeley. The local hospitals have been thrown open and medical men of the university are lending every effort to alleviate suffering. To provide protection, all the student cadets of the University of California tonight were detailed for guard duty on the campus.

TOWN OF OAKLAND HAS SHELTER FOR HUNDREDS

Ferries Carry Distressed and Homeless Humanity and Prices of Food Increase.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

OAKLAND, CAL., April 19.—Oakland tonight, housed and fed probably 50,000 refugees of the stricken city across the bay. All day the stream of humanity has poured from the ferries, everyone carrying personal baggage and articles saved from the conflagration. Thousands of Chinese men, women and children, all carrying luggage to the limit of their strength, poured into the limited Chinatown of Oakland.

Thousands of persons today, besieged the telegraph offices and the crush became so great that soldiers were stationed at the doors to keep them in line and allow as many as possible to find standing room at the counters.

Every boat from San Francisco brings hundreds of refugees carrying luggage and bedding in large quantities. Many women are bareheaded and all of them show fatigue as the result of sleeplessness and exposure to the chill air of last night. Hundreds of these people line the streets of Oakland, waiting for some one to provide them with shelter. Early this morning representatives of the Oakland relief committee appeared on the streets and at the railway stations. Restaurant prices have increased 25 to 100 per cent.

Tacoma Sends Food in Steamer.

TOCOMA, April 19.—Tacoma will send 100 tons supplies to San Francisco by the steamer Nelson, leaving tonight. Ten thousand dollars in cash will also be wired to the chamber of commerce.

Our Collection of Handsome
Lace and Net Waists From Paris

Not only the handsomest models our buyer could find in the French city, but also numerous charming copies of Paris Waists, made in America. And putting the French Waist and the American Waist side by side we don't know that there is so very much difference, unless it be the price. Your Uncle Sam charges us a pretty stiff figure for bringing into Pittsburgh, through the Custom House, waists made in Paris. But our duty is to please women, and there are any number of women in Greater Pittsburgh who will have no other kind of a waist except that which emanates from Paris.

This assemblage of excellent Waists includes charming conceits in Baby Irish, Princess, Renaissance, real German Val. Lace and Embroidered Nets, and the many, many different ways in which these laces have been employed in fashioning a rich Waist are far beyond our allowance of newspaper space for description. Let us show you them as the leading Waists of the city in richness and elegance.

The prices of the Waists mentioned here are, indeed, very modest for the unstinted work put upon each individual Waist—$25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $45.00, $55.00, $65.00, $75.00.

In Silk Waists there is a very elaborate showing of radium, crepe, chiffon, taffeta and peau de cygne models in the most delicate color tints that can be conceived, lavender tint, blue tint, pink tint. The trimmings are narrow laces and other appropriate settings. Prices begin at $18.00 and reach $45.00.

A Note to Mothers About Girls' Spring Dresses.

We wish to say that we have a special lot of Girls' Suits—stripes, checks, plain cheviots. The coats are those jaunty short, boxy affairs, the skirts are pleated. These suits are from groups that we have sold for $15.00, and having lost many of their mates, we now say for them $12.50. Sizes 10, 12, 14 years.

Girls' Spring and Summer Coats—red, blue, tan, cloth—double-breasted and fly front, the price $5.00.

Another line of Spring and Summer Coats of same general description, the cloth employed being stylish fancy mixtures, different grades, at $6.00, $7.50, $9.00 and up to $25.00. Sizes 8 to 14 years.

For young ladies 14 to 18 years of age, there are several lines of short and three-quarter length coats, represented by latest models, at $13.50, $16.00 and on up to $40.00.

Paris Parasols, London Parasols, Vienna Parasols.

All who would look upon a very, very rich and handsome belonging of women are requested to take notice, when down our way, of our elegant display of Parasols from Paris, London and Vienna now on exhibition in one of our windows.

Certainly nothing handsomer in Parasols was ever shown in this city. There are silk Parasols, regally handsome in their plainness, and silk Parasols novelly handsome with their contrasting and unique borders. There are lingerie Parasols of white linen, which are finished with many different applique effects. These Lingerie Parasols have colored lining of delicate and brilliant hues.

As for the handles, each is a work of art, and in the collection there are many handles that are jewels.

In this foreign colony of Parasols there are no two alike, which will be pleasing news to women.

Prices begin at the modest sum of $6.00 and reach away up into figures four or five times as much.

White Dress Cottons for Graduating Dresses.

Principals, teachers—even students, themselves—have come to look upon the expensive graduation dress as something to be frowned upon. Of late years simplicity has been the keynote of all commencement dresses, next to that, inexpensiveness.

Young ladies who take honors on commencement days generally prepare for the event many weeks in advance of the occasion. Most female seminaries terminate their school year along about the first of June. The time is none too long in which to get ready for the day.

These white dress stuffs will appeal strongly to all young ladies who have made up their minds to go in for the simplest dress they can buy for the least money.

Friday, April 20, 1906.

Great sorrow will be felt among scientists throughout the world over the terribly sudden death of Prof. Curie of Paris, who, with his wife, Mme. Curie, discovered radium. These scientists performed a great service to humanity by their patient and long unrewarded researches. It is deplorable in the extreme that just on the threshold of application of their great discovery, M. Curie has met a violent death.

There has been some discussion of the test given steel and other structures by the San Francisco earthquake. This discussion is necessarily without adequate data and had better be postponed for the present. There will be intense interest in the subject at the proper time, that is, when exact information is available and when the more urgent work of affording relief has been attended to. Discussion now might lead to false conclusions.

There will be no Chinese Highbinders' society in Pittsburgh, not at present. The police gathered in 20 members of the Hep Sing Tong last night, including opium and gambling paraphernalia. This morning they will be warned to leave the city and, if they are wise, they will go without dallying. Pittsburgh has no use for this oriental organization of shady reputation, and Supt. McQuaide is entitled to credit for rounding up its emissaries with neatness and dispatch.

It is noted by New York papers the working force at Ellis island is wholly inadequate to cope with the flood of immigrants arriving. Inspectors are working up to 14 hours a day, but cannot keep up with the rate at which the steamships are dumping them. Possibly this fact may induce the gentlemen in congress to apply themselves more diligently to consideration of the pending immigrant bills and dispose them more favorably to the enactment of restrictions.

The narrow escape of the steamship Oceanic from collision with an iceberg calls attention to a peril which has been lessened to great extent by modern methods of ascertaining the presence of these menaces to navigation, even when there are dense fog conditions. It is a danger, however, which can never be entirely removed. In these days when newspapers are necessarily filled with details of disaster, they have been fortunately spared from recording a terrible tragedy at sea.

East End residents, who have been urging the city authorities to clean the streets, have promised to co-operate by doing a similar work for the sidewalks, in compliance with the ordinance. Director Clark of the department of public works has agreed to pay more attention to the streets of that section. The cleaning-up process should not be confined to any section, but should be general throughout the city. As The Gazette has recently pointed out, dirty streets are expensive, much more so than the cost of making and keeping them clean.

A street car equipped with a fender ran over and seriously injured a child on Grant street last evening. According to the explanation the fender was "too high." Its adjustment a few inches lower would have prevented the crippling of the child for life. If fenders are to fulfill the purpose for which they are intended, the street car company must see that they are placed at the proper height. Several lives have been saved by the fender in the last few weeks, but in these instances it was placed in a position that insured its efficiency.

Reporters in Chicago and other cities have been interviewing local savants on the possibility of disasters similar to San Francisco's desolating their vicinities. The absolute impossibility of telling when and where an earthquake will occur has afforded sensational writers wide latitude for making predictions, vague in detail, but awful in what is left to the imagination, which might easily terrify nervous persons. Such "enterprise" is to be deplored. Real newspapers will confine their efforts to describing what has already occurred, a task the magnitude of which only those behind the scenes can realize.

Money Well Spent.

While the alleged contributions of Pittsburgh banks to the Republican campaign fund in 1896 are agitating the sensitive besom of Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina, they are creating no commotion here. Suppose the whole story is true, what then? It is simply a charge that Pittsburgh banks, for the protection of their own assets, the interests of their depositors and the welfare of the country, gave money to spread the propaganda of honesty as against the menace of hypocrisy and free silver coinage. It was money well spent. It helped prevent debasement of the currency.

Not a dollar of any depositor's money was taken to make these contributions. Every depositor profited by the result of the election. The men who made the contributions had to bear the burden chiefly and there is good reason to believe they are satisfied. The defeat of Bryan and his wild theories was worth the money. It was worth twice as much. The prosperity that has followed would have been turned to bitterest depression had Bryan been successful, and the banks of Pittsburgh would not now be in the splendid position they are.

Urgent Relief Work.

Pittsburgh pushed along the work of raising a relief fund for San Francisco and other California towns with noble energy yesterday. The total amount from Pittsburgh sources now aggregates nearly $60,000. Other American cities have been as prompt and as generous. It is to their credit—to the credit of the American people that they have sympathy and that they give of their abundance to relieve distress. The public meeting in the chamber of commerce was an earnest gathering of practical men, and under the leadership of Mayor Guthrie performed the duty for which it was called.

All that may be given will be needed. The situation in San Francisco is steadily growing worse. The flames were eating into the residence districts all day yesterday, adding more thousands to the many thousands already homeless. There will be urgent need for weeks to come of food, clothing, shelter, medicine and money. There is no possible chance that too much will be contributed. All kinds of contributions will be acceptable when the relief work is properly organized in the stricken region, and that will be done before trains from the east can be hurried there.

This country has enjoyed unexampled prosperity for years and from its accumulations can afford to give to those whose all has been wiped away by the elemental forces. It is the duty of all to give; it will be the pleasure of many. All that can be done will be to relieve the most urgent necessities of a sorely afflicted people.

An Indignant Orator.

Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, who is among the few members of the august upper body that lay claim to special oratorical talent, delivered a speech on the rate bill yesterday. It is a subject of which the senator has made a special study, since he has been fighting the railroads of his state for years. Naturally he expected to be greeted by a large and interesting audience of his fellow senators. The audience was there, but as Mr. LaFollette arose to speak, it arose also and filed out through a door into the lobby rooms beyond. "Noticing that the chamber had become suddenly deserted," says the routine report, "Mr. LaFollette declared that the country, at least, would take the situation seriously, and some of the vacant seats might be permanently vacated as the result. He did not care to have the senate called in to hear a speech in which it took no interest."

When the gentleman from Wisconsin has been a little longer in the senate he will learn that the phrase "senatorial courtesy" has a meaning, of a contradictory nature, all its own. Like the old deacon in the front seat who always went asleep during the sermon, because he knew his pastor could be trusted and would say nothing out of the way, his brother senators had confidence that Mr. LaFollette would interpolate nothing that will not appear in the next issue of the Congressional Record, which they can read at their leisure. Older senators have grown accustomed to addressing a waste of empty chairs and the presiding officer. It is not pleasant to waste one's sweetness on the desert air, but it is a condition that, now and then, will confront the senator who finds it necessary to speak on a subject which, however important, cannot easily be made fascinatingly interesting.

A Wedding Innovation.

The blushing principals in a downtown church wedding yesterday were escorted to the railway station in an open wagon drawn by a pair of mules and decorated with printed signs announcing their (the principals') new and happy condition. This vehicle was followed by others filled with friends bearing horns, bells and other unmusical instruments upon which were performed some of the most unpopular songs of the day. Along the route of the parade including the more crowded streets of the business section, the young couple were accorded a flattering amount of public attention. For this exhibition of delicate humor the public is indebted, of course, not to the young persons who had so recently plighted their troth, but to their keenly jocular friends. While it is stated that the bride and groom, "recovering from their surprise, took the matter good naturedly," we may assume that their delight in the proceeding did not attain, at any time, to the height of enthusiasm. The friends, we learn, regard the whole affair as excruciatingly funny and we may congratulate them on the possession of a sense of the ludicrous so keen as to recognize as a joke what most of us should consider an insult.

It appears, then, that the object of the innovation was to infuse a little practical humor into what is sometimes regarded as a serious, if not solemn, occasion. Some years ago a visitor to our shores wrote a book on "The Plague of Jocularity" in which he asserted that Americans, as a people, are becoming humorous in excess. Jerome K. Jerome has recently taken up the same cry declaring "The American indulges too much in humor. He likes a man who has come to drink champagne at every meal. In America everything seems to be sacrificed to humor. Your politics have to be made humorous, your courts of justice have to amuse. Before a great while you will be having funny sermons." If this be our trend it is worth thinking about. While humor is the salt of life, we don't want to eat salt with a spoon. Should innovations such as yesterday's become popular, we should have masters of ceremonies at weddings visiting with each other to see which could produce the most ludicrous effects. Perhaps our humorists could find more appropriate fields for endeavor.

Appeal for the Remedy.

Though the supreme court decision of the other day did not declare any divorces invalid, except the one under consideration, it opened the way for many possible actions to that end. It was the third decision of the highest court along the same line of reasoning. Jurists and attorneys, generally, have voiced approval of the decision, few siding with the dissenting justices, but there has been in all of the comment a note of appeal for remedial legislation.

First, there is a tremendous accentuation of the demand for uniform laws governing marriage and divorce; second, there is an appeal for legislation to legitimize children of unions now declared illegal. Both of these should be acted on. It is discreditable to the sovereign states of this great country that laws governing marriage and divorce are so diverse that what is legal in one is crime in another. The extreme laxity of the law in a few states has been a long standing disgrace. The results under the decision in the Haddock case are of so deplorable a character that all decent-minded men, everywhere, should be moved to insist upon remedial legislation and proximate uniformity.

This decision was rendered by a mere majority of the full bench, but analysis does not encourage expectation of future reversal. The contention that a decree against a defendant resident in another jurisdiction is not enforcible rests on the solid foundation of the constitutional provision that no accused person shall be adjudged guilty until personally confronted by his accuser and the evidence, or without opportunity to make defense. The dissenting judges, with one exception, were obviously more moved by sentiment—by dread of the effects on society of the decision—than by simple regard for the law. The thing that can now be done is to save the innocent by remedial legislation and to improve the future situation by uniform enactments.

Limitations of Human Mind.

There is one thought in connection with the awful catastrophe that has overtaken San Francisco, and that is the unexpected that happens in this life. The future is as a sealed book to us, though many diviners profess to know just what is going to happen. Scientists are at odds about the cause, but there can be no question about the source. Man's mind, however much it has peered into the future, is feeble when compared with Omniscience. We are virtually creatures of mercy.

In the old geography we used to study at the little old school house the earth was not nearly so large as it is today. It has not been so many years back when the state of Idaho, the two Dakotas and Montana were described as the "great American desert." Man has progressed. The telephone, the railroad and other aids to civilization have marched along together in impressive order. We have chained lightning and reduced it to industrial affairs. It now cooks our meals and propels our street cars. Its mysterious power does many other wonderful things, but no man to this day has discovered its original source. We don't know. We guess. Science is not exact, although it has told us to the fraction of a second when the eclipses of the moon or sun will take place. Science has done more than this, it has harnessed the gas, and lately has gone into the air and transmitted thoughts from one hemisphere to the other. The doctors of philosophy have sat around the tables of discussion and decided momentous questions. The physicians and surgeons have consulted and accomplished wonders in cutting and sawing. We have built wondrous cities; we have invented many things for the comfort and advancement of mankind, but how small, how insignificant the victories of the human mind when placed alongside the direction of the First Cause. The earthquake comes. It shatters. It defies all known laws of science. After it happens then men of science begin to tell about it. The human intellect has its limitations. Perspicuous as it is sometimes, how impotent it becomes when it seeks to discover that which belongs alone to the Infinite. The appalling disaster that has happened to San Francisco is one of the unexpected things in this life. It happened to the ancient Roman cities just as it overwhelmed the modern communities. It smothered St. Pierre just as it drenched Sodom and Gomorrah with fire. In all humanity let Pittsburgh be thankful that their homes are intact and that the sheltering hills have not dropped down upon us.

That Iowa man who, after accumulating $200,000, has decided to quit, "in order to give others a chance," may be only too lazy to work during the baseball season.

The manner in which the whole country is rallying to the aid of the stricken city should silence the cynics who profess no faith in human nature.

As anticipated, the man who foretold the calamity is appearing in various parts of the country, but we are too busy to listen to him now.

A scientist says the most beautiful portions of the world are the most dangerous to live in. Pittsburgh must be an exception.

Such tremendous efforts have been made to get a witness out of jail, the suspicion grows he must know something worth while.

The man with the garden rake, whose wife goes out and bosses the job, is apparently to receive no presidential sympathy.

New York immigration officials are working overtime, but cannot keep up to the pace of the steamship companies.

President Roosevelt's remarks about Judge Humphrey were wholly unexpected after the Muckrake speech.

The class in "monkey talk" at the university of Chicago will doubtless employ the new deformed spelling.

Hearst is apparently proud to be classed as a Muckrake. Worse things might be said about his publications.

Director Ridgway does not quarrel with the Edis law and its author, but starts in to enforce and test it.

Pittsburgh has a great reputation for liberality to live up to, but there are no indications of failure.

At any rate, the nation is now too busy with better work to pay any attention to Gorky.

Vesuvius has been forced into second place as a calamity center that more tears may flow.

Pittsburgh is expressing her sympathy in shekels, the only practical way in this emergency.

Judge Cutting has called President Roosevelt a "Dutchman," but there will be no fight.

King Edward will walk straighter than ever now that he is an American doctor of laws.

Pittsburgh is responding nobly to the cry of distress. Pittsburgh always has done so.

There will be "something doing" with the Liberty avenue tracks, pretty soon.

Nobody has had the temerity to deliver a speech on the Big Stick men.

By giving quickly the Hero Fund commission made it count twice.

All Senator LaFollette's speech lacked was an audience.

The World's a Stage and We the Players

Gossip of Men and Things on Both Sides of the Asbestos Curtain.

By Charles M. Bregg.

While the world has stood shocked and horrified at the terrible catastrophe in San Francisco, it is interesting to know that Herr Conried's Metropolitan Opera Company, which was playing at the Grand Opera house in that city, escaped without the loss of a life, and accounts say that the foreign singers conducted themselves with great courage and calmness amid scenes that were calculated to unnerve the bravest man. The scenery and costumes of the company, amounting in value to some $50,000, were destroyed, it is supposed in the fire which burned the Grand opera house, where the Conried company had been booked for 16 performances with a possible extension for a further week.

Two performances had been given, "The Queen of Sheba," to a good house, and "Carmen," with Caruso and Fremstad, to a capacity audience.

This climax of disaster to the grand opera season is especially distressing, according to statements made in New York with regard to the season as a whole.

The transcontinental tour had not been a success. St. Louis, Kansas City and Pittsburgh had all refused adequate support. Chicago had just come up to expectation, but the advance sales in San Francisco, amounting as they did to some $90,000, in themselves had guaranteed the financial equilibrium of the tour. But two performances have been given, the rest of the money must be returned, and Mr. Conried will be found to have sustained a loss of some seventy or eighty thousand dollars.

The company is, of course, disbanded, so the members of it will lose, in the case of such singers as Caruso and Eames, some four or five thousand dollars each, down to the chorus, who lose two weeks' salary.

✦ ✦ ✦

Besides the Metropolitan Opera Company, which was playing at the Grand opera house in San Francisco, "Babes in Toyland" was at the Columbia, Walter Perkins and company in "Who Goes There," at the Majestic, The Cherry Blossoms Burlesque at the California, stock companies at the Alcazar, Alhambra, New Century and Tivoli theaters and vaudeville at the Orpheum, Chutes, Fisher's and numerous smaller houses.

William Collier and his company were due to arrive in San Francisco on Tuesday night or yesterday morning, and were to sail for Australia Thursday.

✦ ✦ ✦

With their usual generous sympathy for their fellow craftsmen in distress the theatrical people in New York are already preparing to give monster benefits in aid of the stricken city and for such of the players as may suffer serious loss through the disaster. Among the first of the managers to offer aid was David Belasco. Mr. Belasco immediately announced yesterday that a special matinee of Miss Blanche Bates in "The Girl of the Golden West" would be given at the Belasco theater on Tuesday afternoon, May 1. There is a touch of sentiment behind this, and perhaps it is this that brings Mr. Belasco first into the field in aid of the suffering humanity of his native state. Not only is he himself a Californian, having been born in San Francisco, but Miss Bates herself is a native of that state. Furthermore, Mr. Belasco's "The Girl of the Golden West" is distinctly Californian in every sense, and certainly no more appropriate offering could be made.

✦ ✦ ✦

Another touch of sentiment will be given this benefit by the appearance, in a recitation of David Warfield, whose mother lives in San Francisco. Miss Bates has several relatives in that city and Mr. Belasco's father, brothers and sisters live there. The Shuberts have also set apart a benefit performance of "Arms and the Man," by Arnold Daly's company at the Lyric theater on Monday next. There is no doubt that many other benefits will follow, showing that the world of the stage, in common with the world of humanity, has been touched deeply by the great calamity that has befallen the city of the Golden Gate.

Knowing ones pretend that by certain wise deductions they have arrived at the conclusion that Richard Mansfield is to be the president and director of the new "National Art theater," to be erected in New York, and for which a stock company with ample capital has been formed and architectural plans already submitted. These guessers declare that the announced completion of this theater and the time declared by Mr. Mansfield for his permanent retirement from the stage fall on approximately the same dates. This is taken to mean that having accepted the directorship of the new theater Mr. Mansfield is preparing for the relinquishment of his stage career for the purpose of entering his new sphere.

So far as I am able to discover these are the only facts on which the guessers base their assumption. If it should be true that Mr. Mansfield is to quit the stage and take up the onerous work of directing a big enterprise like a national theater he certainly cannot anticipate finding the rest for which he said his retirement would be sought. I know, however, of no other actor in America better fitted for the specific work of directing the art lines of the proposed institution. Mr. Mansfield, at least, has ideas and has never shown any lack of courage or honesty in trying to enforce them where he had the power.

Good Stories of Pith and Moment.

Chat and Anecdote of Entertaining and Instructive Character.

CULLED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

Up or Down.

On Mount Tom, in Massachusetts, there is a traction system operating two cars on a cable. As one car goes up, the other comes down. The grade is an extraordinarily steep one, a fact that frequently calls forth anxious inquiries relative to the safety of the system from the nervous tourists.

One afternoon a lady from Boston seated herself in the rear of the car that was about to make its ascent of the mountain, and it was at once observed by several that she was extremely anxious as to the outcome of her temerity.

"Is this car perfectly safe?" asked she of the conductor.

"It is considered to be, madam," was the reply.

"Have there never been any accidents?"

"None to speak of, madam—that is, no serious ones."

The lady sighed uneasily. "I was wondering," observed she, "what would become of me if the cable should break when we were just reaching the top of the mountain."

"That would depend upon how you had spent your past life, madam," quietly replied the conductor.—Harper's Weekly.

His Leaky Baggage.

One of the jokes of which Kentuckians never grow weary concerns Senator Blackburn and his loyal appreciation of the liquid products of his native state. The senator had gone to pay a visit to a friend of his who lived many miles distant. His friend met the senator as he alighted at the station.

"How are you, Joe?" his friend asked.

"I'm up against it," was the reply. "I lost the best part of my baggage en route."

"Did you misplace it, or was it stolen?" his friend inquired solicitously.

"Neither," said the senator. "The cork came out."—Cleveland Leader.

Nature of an Oath.

Some 80 years ago a case was on trial before the judge of a court in a city in which, among the numerous witnesses for the defense, was a shiftless-looking colored man named Jones, who was to testify as to an alibi.

He was finally called and the usual oath was about to be administered when the attorney for the prosecution arose and addressed his honor, suggesting that Mr. Jones be interrogated as to his understanding of the solemnity of an oath. The judge therefore asked the witness if he understood the nature of an oath, to which he replied: "Yes, sah."

"Well," said his honor, "what is it?"

To which Mr. Jones immediately replied, "Why, when you tell a lie, stick to it."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Presence of Mind.

Mme. Rachel, the great actress, was resting alone in her dressing room one night preparatory to going on the stage, when a man suddenly entered and, drawing a dagger, said he was going to kill her if she did not at once consent to marry him.

The actress saw at a glance that the man was mad and meant what he said. So with the utmost coolness she replied:

"Certainly I will marry you. I wish nothing better. Come with me to the priest at once; I have had him come here for the purpose."

She took his arm and they went out together—to where there was assistance, of course, and the man was immediately put under arrest.—Philadelphia Record.

Art Criticism.

An old country couple strayed into the Manchester Art gallery, catalogue in hand, and were wandering from room to room looking at the pictures, which were numbered anew—one, two, three and so on—in each division, instead of continuously throughout the whole exhibition. The two old people stopped in awe and admiration before Madox Brown's heroic picture, "The Death of King Lear."

"What's this 'un, Jinny?" asked the old man.

"A'll see, Jarge—A'll see, ef ye'll give me a minute."

The old lady hastily turned to the catalogue division of another room, and read off the number corresponding to that of the picture before them. It chanced to be that of Landseer's famous picture of a collie fallen over a cliff and just reached by the anxious shepherd, who announces the result of his examination of the poor beast's injuries to his comrades on the rocks above. She read off the title of the picture to her husband:

"'There's Life in the Old Dog Yet.'"

Looking from the aged and forsaken king, "Jarge" failed to perceive anything wrong in the name.

"So there is, gal!" he exclaimed, in a burst of pity; adding, with dropped voice and a shake of the head at Lear, "but not much, not much!"—Manchester (Eng.) Times.

What Increases the Value.

Frenchmen are nothing if not tactful. It was a fine conceit finely carried into execution to send President Roosevelt a testimonial bearing the signatures of the late president of the French republic and other eminent public men of influence in its affairs signifying their appreciation of his active efforts to promote friendly and judicial determination of conflicts between nations instead of the arbitration of war. It increases the value of the tribute that it has been highly deserved.—Philadelphia Record.

Men More Foolish.

The telegraph tells of a man who paid $6,000 for an orchid, and of another who paid $150,000 for a horse. The little worms and bugs will eat a $6,000 plant as readily as a weed, and a $150,000 horse is not above the glanders. In view of these purchases, and others told every day that are so bad, the charge that only women are foolish when they go shopping is proven untrue.—Ohio State Journal.

Quiet Observations on Timely Topics

Love the Birds First and All Things Shall Be Added.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

How does that motto of the Borroughs club strike you?

Maybe you have never thought seriously about birds, at least not seriously enough to lead you to love them.

What do you think birds are for? to shoot at, or to wear on your hat, to throw stones at, or to build nests for boys to rob?

Be not deceived. Birds were made for a good purpose, therefore to be respected and loved by all good people. Coarse, cruel, brutal men take delight in maiming and killing birds. Therefore, beware of a bird killer, for he has not a kind, generous, loving heart.

Bird lovers are neither cranks nor faddists, but good-hearted, gentle and loving folks, and as such will be found to be safe friends.

✲ ✲ ✲

There are bird cranks, but they, too, are good people, loving and lovable. We call the cranks because of their fondness for associating with birds, being neighborly with them, and nebbing into their business, prying into their family affairs, and making genological trees for them.

A thorough bird crank can spin you a story about a chippy, its sisters, its cousins, and its aunts, that will amaze you. Nor is its private character, its physical make-up, its habits—good or bad—unknown to him, nor too sacred for him to reveal.

His stories of bird life are among the most interesting to be found anywhere. You would hardly think a bit of a bird could be so interesting, but if you will get some of these stories from the Borroughs Club of America, or better still become a member of the club, you will soon discover that birds are not only nice, but interesting, as well as useful.

✲ ✲ ✲

Our fine ladies who wear birds on their hats may not know that they are lawbreakers. For such as these we give space to a section or two of the law of this state relating to birds.

"There shall be no hunting or shooting on the first day of the week, called Sunday. Penalty for each offense, $25.

"Sunday is a close season for game as well as song birds.

"No person shall kill or catch or have in his or her possession at any time, living or dead, the bodies of any insect-eating or song bird. They must not be kept in cages. Penalty for each offense, $10, for wild pigeon, $25.

"No person shall disturb or needlessly destroy the nest or the eggs of any insect-eating or song bird. Penalty for each offense $50."

From a circular issued by the Borroughs club giving the names of song birds, also information concerning the seasons for killing game birds, we take the following:

"Foreigners and non-residents are not permitted to carry a gun in woods or fields in the 'close' season; penalty, $25.

"In the 'open' season such parties must have a license from the county treasurer of county in which they wish to hunt; fee, $10; penalty, $25.

"It is unlawful to discharge on any street or alley of any borough or city any gun, flobert rifle, air gun, spring gun, or any implement which will discharge a leaden pellet with force. Penalty, first offense, $5; second offense, $15. Naturalized foreigners are exempt from license.

"Any person giving information that leads to conviction for offenses shall receive half the penalty, and constables $10 additional from the county.

"Violations of above laws should be reported to Dr. Joseph Kalbfus, secretary state game commission, Harrisburg, Pa., or any constable or game warden."

✲ ✲ ✲

The English sparrow is not rated as a song bird, therefore is not protected as are the other 16 species of sparrows found in this state.

While it is true that this English cousin is something of a nuisance it isn't more than half as bad as it is painted, and not nearly as worthless as some would have us believe.

It feeds mainly on grain and starchy substance which, if allowed to remain on the streets and pavements, becomes deleterious to health. Each of these little fellows destroy at least an ounce of this disease breeding stuff a day. If there is half a million of them in our city, as claimed, how many tons of this poisonous refuse do they daily remove? This is a problem for you to work out. And when you have done so send us the answer.

✲ ✲ ✲

Potato bugs, grasshoppers, and chinch bugs, are held to be great grafters, in that they rob the farmers to the extent of several million dollars annually.

If we knew why these things exist and could fathom the mystery of their missions, we might find that the balance was really in favor of the farmer.

There is so much that we don't know, you know, that we ought to be very careful about finding fault with Providence. It is not at all likely that any really useless thing was ever created, for in the beginning was not everything declared good, and all for the betterment of the world in general, and for the comfort of man in particular?

Almost every day discoveries are made which show that things heretofore regarded as useless, or harmful, are not only useful, but can be made to minister to man's comfort as nothing else can.

✲ ✲ ✲

Every boy and girl should be a member of the Borroughs Club of America. It is easy and not at all expensive, and well worth while, for through it you will get bird pictures and stories, learn the names of birds, and become able to talk well about them, if not to them.

There is a club in Wilkinsburg of which C. Leon Brumbaugh is president, and Mary H. Gibson is secretary. It is growing and flourishing, and there is room for you, no matter how far away you may be.

Address a letter or a postal card to Mary H. Gibson, Wilkinsburg, Pa., and see what she will send you.

The same force formed the sparrow
That fashioned man—the king:
The God of the whole gave a spark of a soul
To furred and to feathered thing.
And I am my brother's keeper,
And I will fight his fight,
And speak the word for the beast and bird,
Till the world shall set things right.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Notes About People and Events in Which Pittsburghers Are Interested.

At their fifth annual banquet, graced by the presence of Mayor Guthrie, the Pittsburgh branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers, with 250 members present, made merry at the Monongahela house last night. The association is 14 years old in Pittsburgh, and now has 350 members. Daniel Ashworth acted as toastmaster and introduced Mayor Guthrie, who headed the list of speakers. The mayor's topic was "Organization," and in the course of a scholarly address, that lasted 20 minutes, he alluded to the success of the organization, primarily due to the fact that it does not believe in strikes, even though the members believe in earning more—and learning more. The mayor dwelt upon the point that during the entire 27 years of the national organization's existence there had never been a strike or serious disagreement between members and employers. He pointed in explanation to the educational features of the local branch, which keeps the members in touch with modern methods of handling modern machinery.

William Tipper spoke on "The Twentieth Century Engineer" and Charles H. Garlock on "Ladies' Auxiliary." The committee of arrangements consisted of T. C. Green, chairman; John Knowles, treasurer; Edward Murphy, George Seamens and William T. Weiman. The officers of the organization are: Samuel D. Forse, president; James Dripps, vice president; William B. Fitzpatrick, financial secretary; Joseph A. MacDonald, recording secretary, and Charles Neff, treasurer.

Start Wedding Trip in Dray.

"We are just married." "Do we look happy?" and "On our honeymoon" were some of the legends that adorned the banners borne on the four mule-drawn drays which formed the wedding escort for Miss Mary Saunders, a stenographer in the employ of the Pittsburgh Gage and Supply Company and John Snodgrass, manager of one of the departments of the same firm, who were married at the First Presbyterian church at noon yesterday, and who expected to find one of the smartest rigs in the city waiting to convey them to the Union station when they stepped out of the church door. Imagine their surprise then when they found that their friends had removed the carriage and put in its place a gaily-decorated dray furnished with two chairs which they insisted that the young couple occupy. Amid much laughter and throwing of rice the other three drays fell in behind and with the empty carriage bringing up the rear the procession moved through the crowded streets to the Union station.

San Franciscans at the Hotels.

Naturally the sole topic of conversations in the lobbies of hotels is the great disaster in San Francisco, because of the great number of traveling men in Pittsburgh whose home offices or branch departments are in the ill-fated city. Herman Franklin, representative of the Napa and Sonoma Wine Company, whose offices in Tenth street were burnt and vineyards near Santa Rosa probably destroyed, left the Henry hastily for his home city. T. Benjamin and W. E. Elliott, representative 'Frisco men who were staying at the Henry, also left town last night.

One San Francisco traveling man who received positive information of the death of several members of his family, became nearly frantic at a downtown hotel last night because of business ties that kept him in this city.

Banker Bowlers Dine.

The second annual banquet of the Bankers' Bowling league was held at the Annex hotel last night and was largely attended by members of the clubs forming the league, which includes teams from many of the local banks, the Farmers Deposit, Keystone, German National, Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, Columbia National, Colonial Trust, Mellon National, Commonwealth, Lincoln, Diamond National and Guarantee Title and Trust. Allen Morphy acted as toastmaster and awarded the 12 different prizes of varying value that fell to the teams according to the number of their victories. The officers of the Bankers' Bowling league are E. B. Cole, president; R. H. MacMichael, vice president; H. A. Johnston, treasurer, and H. J. Hutchinson, secretary.

Delta Sigma Delta Banquets.

The fourth annual banquet of the Sigma chapter of the Western University of Pennsylvania, which is the local branch of the Delta Sigma Delta Greek letter fraternity, was held at the Hotel Henry last night with 50 members present. The evening was characterized by a long program outlining the future aims of the Pittsburgh branch of this most famous of Greek letter fraternities. The toastmaster was Dr. J. Howard Crawford, '99, who introduced in their order the following speakers: Walter F. Burgoon, '07, "Our Chapter;" John H. F. Grazier, '06, "The Faculty;" Dr. John F. Biddle, '03, "What Delta Sigma Delta Means to Us;" Wilbur E. DuVal, "Rube;" J. Grayson Fitzhugh, "Dental Education;" Dr. Robert Zugsmith, '02, "Auxiliary;" Harold C. Stevenson, "Fraternity Home."

C. C. Anthony headed the committee of arrangements. The officers of the local chapter are Curt F. Leidenroth, grand master; Walter F. Burgoon, worthy master; Alexander M. Lurting, scribe; Harold C. Stevenson, treasurer; Theodore V. Perry, tyler; Walter G. Mack, senior page; Wilbur E. DuVal, junior page; Carl W. Blumenschein, historian.

OPERA SINGERS LOSE EVERYTHING

Mmes. Eames and Sembrich and Mr. Caruso Have Become Separated from Others.

ARE BELIEVED TO BE SAFE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—By the burning of the St. Francis hotel, which was consumed, $4,000,000 went up in smoke. This magnificent caravansary, which at the time of its destruction was being enlarged at enormous expense, was filled with guests. Among those stopping at the hotel when the building was destroyed were James Riley and wife of the Hotel Wolcott, New York city; several members of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York and many other eastern visitors. It was reported that no one was injured at the St. Francis.

Adolphus Busch and party left the hotel when it was apparent that the building was doomed, and they are now housed with relatives at the Presidio. The opera singers at this hotel, as well as those at the Palace hotel, lost their all, with the exception of several violins valued at $12,000, which were saved from the flames at the eleventh hour by Nathan Franko, the musical director of the company. The costumes, scenery, personal belongings and musical instruments, everything, succumbed to the flames.

It is reported that several members of the opera company are without money or belongings. Director Franko is now endeavoring to arrange for passage to New York for his people, and it is expected that they will be rushed to New York at the earliest possible moment. Mr. Franko, who is now in Oakland, says that many of the stars have been lost sight of, including Mmes. Eames and Sembrich and Mr. Caruso, but he is of the opinion that they have been taken in charge by friends.

Earth's Trembling Hastens the Flight by Ferry and to Tents on Sand Hills.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The flight of residents from the city continued today in the nature of a panic, a slight earthquake at 5 o'clock this morning accentuating their terrors. The ferryboats to adjacent counties were crowded to the utmost, while to the westward portion of the peninsula a constant throng of homeless people carrying their portable household belongings are adding to the colonies in the secure sand hills and the parks.

Golden Gate park and the unimproved blocks of the south and north of the park are already presenting the appearance of tented cities, many varieties of shelter being improvised from bedding and blankets.

HARRIMAN SPEEDS TO STRICKEN CITY

Railroad Man Rushes Through Pittsburgh to Carry Relief to 'Frisco's Homeless Ones.

TRAINLOAD OF PROVISIONS

"I am rushing for San Francisco, not as a railroad magnate to safeguard damaged property, but to work like any other good citizen for the regeneration of the ill-fated city. Understand me clearly, I do not pose as a philanthropist—I rather think that San Franciscans do not admire that pose—but I stand ready with purse and influence to help the stricken city. That would be my instant course toward the coming city of this country even were not the prosperity of my 20,000 miles of western railroads and Pacific mail steamship lines mirrored in the prosperity of the 'Queen of the Golden West.'"

So said Edward H. Harriman, pacing up and down the platform of union station as his special car, "Arden," halted a few minutes at Pittsburgh on its speedy course to the stricken city. Pulling into Chicago at 7 o'clock this morning, his private car and as many others as can be hauled, will be hitched to a powerful engine and the "Little Giant" of railroading will start a spectacular dart across the country to reach 'Frisco in the shortest possible time. The cars will be loaded with provisions, and it is said Mr. Harriman will take personal command of the railroad system under his control and devote his efforts to bring relief to the people.

"It is true," said the president of eight great transportation lines that find their headquarters in 'Frisco, "that Union Pacific has slumped 9 points and Southern Pacific somewhat less, but it is manifestly unfair to connect me with the bearish movement. For one reason, it is not based on damage we have sustained. Outside of the wrecking of our offices in the Merchants' Exchange building, our railroad buildings and terminals are of the flimsiest construction and would soon be replaced by ornate buildings, anyhow.

"While I have given no interview on this situation and have never mentioned the stock market in my talks for publication, I may say that unscrupulous New York financiers have taken advantage of this national calamity to 'rig' the stock market. The tone will reassert itself quickly. I am rushing to 'Frisco at the request of the board of trade and other commercial boards, and at my own initiative.

"Permit me to emerge from my husk as a financier to say that I almost wish the damage was more equitably divided. My plans for a newer and greater San Francisco—a city that will yet be the metropolis of the country, even as it is now is the gateway to the wakening east—will only be measured by the loss sustained. My thoughts are all for the city and its people; not one minute for the Union Pacific, the Southern Pacific, Pacific Mail Steamship Company, Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, Panama line or Portland and Asiatic Steamship companies."

Newspapers to Issue Again.

CHICAGO MAN SEES TERRIBLE SIGHTS

Guest Who Escapes from the Palace Hotel Describes Scenes Following the Earthquake.

PEOPLE FIGHT IN FRENZY

LOS ANGELES, April 19.—Albert H. Gould of Chicago was one of three persons to arrive in Los Angeles on the first train from San Francisco, which reached here at 11 o'clock today.

"I was asleep on the seventh floor of the Palace hotel," he said, "at the time of the first quake. I was thrown out of bed and half way across the room. Immediately realizing the import of the occurrence and fearing the building was about to collapse, I made my way down six flights of stairs and into the main corridor. I was the first guest to appear. Clerks and hotel employes were running about like mad men. Within two minutes after I had reached the corridor other guests began to flock into the court. Most all were night clothing only. Men, women and children stood as though fixed. Children and women cried. The men were hardly less affected.

"I returned to my room and got my clothing, then walked to the offices of the Western Union in my pajamas and bare feet to telegraph to my wife in Los Angeles. I found the telegraphers on duty, but all the wires were down. I sat down on the sidewalk, picked the broken glass out of the soles of my feet and put on my clothes. All this, I suppose, took 20 minutes. Within that time, below the Palace hotel, buildings for more than three blocks were a mass of flames, which quickly spread to other buildings. The scene was terrible. Billows of fire seemed to roll from half consumed blocks, to other blocks.

"The Spreckles building at Third and Market streets looked out of plumb. I remained in San Francisco until 8 o'clock and then took a ferry for Oakland, but returned to the burning city an hour and a half later. At that time the city seemed doomed. I remained a few minutes, then made my way back to the ferry station.

"People by the thousands were crowded around the ferry station. They clawed at the iron gates like so many maniacs. They sought to break the bars and failing in that, turned on each other. After a maddening delay, we got aboard the boat and crossed the bay."

J. R. Ritter of Houston, Texas, said:

"I was in the Golden West hotel when the first shock came. When I awoke, the hotel was rocking like a cradle. While I was dressing, the rear wall of the hotel fell into the dining-room. I was dressed by the time the second shock came and was going to rush out of the building, but the appeals of the women on the same floor stopped me. With some of the other men guests on the fourth floor, we got the women out. Most of the women were hysterical.

"Many naked and half-dressed persons were in the streets, running about crying, screeching, wild with fear, while buildings toppled over and choked up the streets."

R. A. Cole, a horseman, was at the Palace hotel, when the quake came.

"I never saw anything like it," said Cole. "I was in the St. Louis cyclone and the Baltimore fire. They were nothing. I saw all San Francisco staggering and rocking, and then in flames."

"I was staying at 35 Fifth street, San Francisco. The rear of the house collapsed and the landlady and about 30 roomers were killed. I escaped by the roof as the stairway had collapsed in the rear. Out in the street it was impossible to find a clear pathway. I saw another lodging house near ours collapse; I think it was at 39 Fifth street, and all the inmates were killed. In a few minutes the entire block was in flames."

DONATE AT RATE OF $1,000 A MINUTE

Public Meeting Called by Mayor Guthrie Displays Typical Pittsburgh Liberality.

NAMES RELIEF COMMITTEE

Tweny-three thousand dollars in 23 minutes!

This was the contribution record made yesterday afternoon at the public meeting held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce in the interest of the stricken and suffering citizens of San Francisco and other California cities and towns. Scarcely had Mayor George W. Guthrie, who presided, announced that contributions were in order, when donations of $2,000, $1,000, $500 and $250 came from all sections of the assembly room.

Pursuant to the call of the mayor, 150 representative merchants and business men gathered in the rooms of the chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon, and after Major A. P. Burchfield had suggested Mayor Guthrie as chairman, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the appalling loss of life and property resulting from an earthquake in San Francisco and other cities of California calls for practical sympathy and prompt succor from the people of Pittsburgh.

Resolved, That his honor, George W. Guthrie, mayor of Pittsburgh, be requested and is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of 21 citizens, of which committee he shall be a member and chairman, to solicit and receive such relief funds to be forwarded for distribution among the sufferers by this calamity in San Francisco and elsewhere in California, according to the discretion of the committee.

Robert Pitcairn suggested that the name of the committee be "California relief" committee, as other places than San Francisco had suffered and should be given relief according to their pro rata loss. This suggestion was adopted, and the committee was tendered the use of the chamber of commerce rooms indefinitely.

Mayor Guthrie delivered a short address, calling attention to the deplorable catastrophe and suggesting that steps be at once taken to offer relief and material sympathy.

Prof. Silas G. Pratt asked permission to arrange a monster benefit concert to be given in Duquesne Gardens and his suggestion was referred to the committee. Following adjournment, Mayor Guthrie announced the committee to be as follows: The Hon. George W. Guthrie, chairman; H. C. Frick, George Westinghouse, Robert Pitcairn, John B. Jackson, James McCrea, H. D. W. English, A. P. Burchfield, B. F. Jones, Jr., F. R. Babcock, T. D. Harmon, W. J. Monroe, O. H. Allerton, D. L. Gillespie, John H. Jones, R. B. Mellon, H. J. Heinz, A. M. Hanauer, W. B. Schiller, H. C. McEldowney and Francis L. Robbins. The committee will meet in the rooms of the chamber of commerce this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Pittsburgh Post reported last night that $739 had been received at its offices by popular subscription and the same will be turned into the general fund.

At a meeting of Allegheny common council last night the rules were suspended and a resolution was unanimously passed donating $2,500 to the stricken people of California. President Torrance of select council will be asked to call a special session of select council to ratify this action.

At roll call last night the policemen of Allegheny held a short meeting and voted to contribute $1,000 through Mayor Kirschler to the relief of the California sufferers. Addresses were made by Supt. John Glenn, Capt. James Agnew and G. H. D. Wills.

President Charles L. Taylor of the Carnegie hero fund received the following telegram of acceptance from Mayor Schmidtz of San Francisco last night:

"Your offer of $25,000 is accepted with sincere appreciation.

"T. E. SCHMIDTZ, Mayor."

At a meeting of the Pittsburgh board of trade held last evening $1,000 was donated to start a fund of $5,000 which the board has determined to raise for the relief of earthquake victims in San Francisco. Three hundred dollars of this was contributed by the board and the remaining $700 was raised from the subscriptions of about 60 individual members. The following committee was appointed by T. D. Harman, president of the board, to take charge of the fund: Henry H. Negley, John W. Thompson, Dr. W. K. T. Sahm, Dr. R. W. Andrews and A. D. Ewing. Circular letters will be sent to each of the 1,200 members of the board as well as others interested in philanthropic work.

TRAINS AND BOATS AGAIN RUNNING

Railroad and Ferry Communication With San Francisco Is Resumed.

OUTSIDERS STILL BARRED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The war department late this afternoon received the following telegram from Gen. Funston, at San Francisco:

"Latest report regarding railroad communication as follows: Ferry building and wharves to the north of Market street intact and out of danger. Ferry running regularly to Sausalito, Tiburon and Oakland. Railroad officials have established offices in ferry building. Trains now running regularly via Stockton to east and north. Report is that regular train service will be kept up. Large number of people leaving by ferries."

CHICAGO, April 19.—Passenger Traffic Manager Black of the Santa Fe system announced late today that all passenger trains are now running through by way of Albuquerque and Mojave to the Santa Fe terminus on San Francisco bay at Point Richmond. All the damage done to the track by the earthquake has been repaired. The ferry-boat of the Santa Fe road, the San Pablo, is in regular service between Point Richmond and the Market street landing in San Francisco.

Traffic Manager Black announced that while outside travelers are not allowed at present to enter the city of San Francisco, it is probable that within the next two or three days the embargo will be removed. There has been no interruption of through train service on the Santa Fe to Los Angeles, San Diego and other points in southern California.

SAN FRANCISCO RISKS ARE VERY FEW LOCALLY

Only One Pittsburgh Insurance Co. Had Much Business in California—Collapse Clause a Weak Reed.

The National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh is about the only local company which does business in California. The company has 75 agencies scattered all over the state, in San Diego, Los Angeles, Sacramento and the other large cities. According to the 1904 report of the California state commissioner of insurance the company had $3,846,329 insurance risks in the entire state in that year. How much of this was in San Francisco the report does not state, and last night E. E. Cole, of the company, said it could only be determined by going over the company's books.

Insurance men were yesterday of the opinion that the companies would not have to pay out much money on account of the fire in San Francisco, basing their opinion upon the clause which provides that if a building falls down, except as the result of fire, all insurance on the building shall immediately cease.

Still, insurance men admitted that the building adjoining one that has fallen down must be paid for, if it is insured and burns down, having caught fire from the building which did fall. And that is why the insurance companies will find, it is predicted, that they will have a good deal of insurance money to pay out. The news from San Francisco last night showed that the whole town was burning up, and all the insured buildings caught fire while still standing will have to be paid for.

J. C. Bergstresser, editor of the Insurance World, yesterday intimated that the companies would be liberal, but W. D. McGill of the Allegheny board of fire underwriters, said: "The insurance companies will pay no more than they are legally bound to pay, and the fact that the clause making the policy void if a building falls is inserted in nearly all of the policies makes the chances of San Francisco property owners look dubious. I don't think the National Union company will lose much because of the fire in San Francisco."

The German and Monongahela Insurance companies, local concerns, have some risks in San Francisco, but not many.

Sacramento People Will Run Boats of Supplies Until Need Ceases.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., April 19.—Citizens of Sacramento at an impromptu meeting on the court house steps in the city this morning raised $50,000 in twenty minutes for the relief of the earthquake and fire sufferers in San Francisco.

It was decided at the meeting immediately to start steamers for San Francisco with supplies and to continue sending steamers every day until all suffering is alleviated.

RUINS ON ALL SIDES IN VIEW

Trip Through Principal Streets Gives Idea of Appalling Scene Following Destruction.

JOURNEY IS DESCRIBED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—From the Mechanics pavilion down to the Oakland ferry an Associated Press man made his way through the menacing wall frontages and climbing over hillocks of masonary and junk of all sorts in the middle of the city's greatest thoroughfare. The journey was heartrending, the scene appalling. On either side was ruin, nothing but ruin. To the south, in hundreds of blocks, hardly a building remained whole. The United States mint escaped almost unscathed on account of its isolated environment and its peculiar fire-proof construction, but the force of rending power of the earthquake could be seen in the cracked walls of the new postoffice building. In front of the postoffice on Seventh and Mission streets the ground had sunk for several feet.

Across an alley from the postoffice stood the headquarters of the army. This was gutted. Opposite on Market street the ruins of the Hibernian Savings bank loomed up, its former beautiful frontage transformed into hideous aspect. This was the bank of the middle and poorer classes and its loss will cause possibly greater sorrow south of Market street than perhaps the loss of any one institution. From this point down to the ferry the same story could be told of each successive block.

The great Flood, Crocker & Phelan buildings are included in the list of destroyed property. The Palace hotel still stands, a huge monument to the awful disaster, its blackened walls and empty interior bearing little resemblance to the huge hostelry of a day ago.

The handsome, gigantic St. Francis hotel on Powell street, fronting on Union Square, is a ruined shell. Among the other high skyscrapers north of Market that fell into the flames were the 14-story Merchants Exchange and the Mills building, occupying almost an entire block.

SACRED CONCERT BENEFIT.

E. J. McCullough Will Suggest a Method to Raise Funds by Sunday Performance.

E. J. McCullough, manager of the Empire theater, East End, will call upon Mayor Guthrie this morning with a suggestion that a sacred concert be given for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers on Sunday, April 29. Mr. McCullough will donate the use of the Empire theater, with its light, heat and corps of ushers and other employes, representing several hundred dollars. He will ask the mayor to appoint a committee to take charge of the affair. He suggests that many church vocalists would volunteer, and he knows that members of the theatrical profession who happen to be in the city on that date will be glad to add their talent.

Manager McCullough thinks there are many persons who would be glad to contribute in this manner, when they would not care to have small cash contributions appear opposite their names.

DEATH STALKS IN DARK.

Mayor Schmitz Issues Another Proclamation Warning Law-Abiding as Well as Lawless of Dangers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Mayor Schmitz this afternoon issued the following proclamation:

The federal troops, the members of the regular police force and all special police officers have been authorized to kill any and all persons engaged in looting or in the commission of any other crime.

I have directed all gas and electric lighting companies not to turn on gas or electricity until I order them to do so. You may therefore expect the city to remain in darkness for an indefinite time.

I request all citizens to remain at home from darkness until daylight every night until order is restored.

I warn all citizens of the danger of fire from damaged or destroyed chimneys, broken or leaking gas pipes or fixtures or any like causes.

CHICAGO SENDS SLEUTHS TO HELP GUARD RUINS

CHICAGO, April 19.—Chief of Police Collins today telegraphed to Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco, offering the assistance of 10 of the most expert detectives of the Chicago police force.

Mayor Dunne approved of the suggestion of Chief Collins and ordered that measures be taken at once to send the officers. They will leave on tonight's train. It is the belief of Chief Collins that the Chicago detectives will be of great assistance in watching thieves, who are expected to flock into San Francisco.

Correct Spring styles in our "Best to buy" Clothing

NO UNCERTAINTY as to the correctness can exist in the mind of the man who wears our "Best to buy" clothing, because every detail featured in the highest grade of ready-to-wear garments manufactured in the United States is also strongly featured and thoroughly represented in our Spring stock. Why "Best to Buy?" Read the answer in the ever-growing clientele of this clothing store—the satisfactory store, wherein rules quality that you can depend upon, styles that please in fullest measure, prices that are fair to all concerned.

"There is no better clothing sold anywhere."

Our new Spring suits and overcoats prove more conclusively than ever that distinctiveness is a point of excellence thoroughly covered in our lines—not the distinctiveness of extreme fashions or extravagant patterns—but that distinctive refinement which at once appeals to the liking of both young and elderly gentlemen.

It is only after years of continuous development that tailors and makers of ready-to-wear clothes have attained the perfection so clearly defined in the style, character and workmanship of our garments.

Clothing at $10 & $15 of highest standard

The suits and overcoats we show at $10 and $15 are elegant types of absolute correctness. They lack that sameness so evident in just ordinary clothing which is void of the human touch. Every suit, every overcoat is hand-tailored with the best skill procurable. Each garment receives individual attention at the hands of an expert, so that every detail, every line of style, every bit of modeling, every stitch, counts for all that's best.

The materials from which the suits are made embrace every new fabric in every new shade; single and double-breasted; coats and trousers cut to latest fashion plate lines.

The materials from which the short box overcoats and the Parisian full length, fitting waist, belled skirt overcoats are made, are the very best. In the coverts for the box coats the shades include lightest to darkest tans. The Parisian overcoats are shown in every shade of gray; plain, stripes and mixed also.

It is in the higher priced line of clothing from $18 to $35 that our supremacy is most evident.

SAN FRANCISCO IN 1860 FROM A PRINT OF THAT PERIOD

PARTY RULES ARE NOW IN CONFLICT

Republican City and County Committees Have Different Qualification Clauses.

ALL PRIMARIES IN SEPTEMBER

Changes were made in the Republican city rules last night which will close the door of the primaries to those who voted the Citizens ticket last fall. In this the qualification clause is in conflict with the one adopted by the Republican county committee. It is probable the latter body will make its rules conform with those of the city committee.

Common council chamber was overflowing with Republicans. Over 100 committeemen were present and with them were workers from all over the city. A fight was expected. The audience was disappointed. Senator Magee pointed out the necessity for harmony in the qualification clause, and offered the county committee rule as an amendment to the Leslie rule. He said that it was either necessary to adopt the county rule or have the county committee rescind its action of April 7. The city committee, by a vote of 100 to 7, voted down the Magee amendment.

F. C. Beinhauer, chairman of the committee on rules, offered the new qualification clause. It allows any man who voted for a majority of the Republican candidates last fall to participate in the primaries. The county rule permits those electors who voted for a majority of the Republican state candidates last fall to enter the primaries. The Citizens will be barred by the Beinhauer proposition and the Lincolnites will be allowed to come in.

Explanation of Magee.

Senator Magee said: "The plan is to hold the primaries for the election of ward committeemen, county committeemen in the city and the city primary election boards on the second Saturday in September, when all candidates for offices to be elected this fall will be nominated. The qualification clause offered by Mr. Beinhauer will be in force for the committeemen and election offices, while the county rule will govern the vote for nominations. If both are to remain in force there will be great conflict at the primaries and many voters will become disgusted. There should be one rule and I do not care which one. In order to get the matter before you I will amend the Beinhauer proposition to make it the same as the county rule. This amendment should either be adopted or the county qualification rescinded."

Chairman Leslie said: "There were not five members of the county committee who understood what the new qualification clause meant when it was adopted. I did not know. If a mistake has been made the error is with the county committee and we should join in a request to the chairman of the county committee to reconvene his body and make the city and county rules harmonize. I am not in favor of putting the men who fight the Republican party on a loyal basis. I appeal to you to defeat the amendment."

W. A. Magee of the Fourteenth ward, said: "In the last eight elections in the city we have lost. The county committee broadened its rules and we have won in the county. I am firm in the belief that if we retain the same restriction in the rules and the same leadership we will continue to lose. I want the gates opened to every Republican and let them say who they want for candidates and leaders."

All Primaries in September.

The roll was called on the Magee amendment and it was defeated by a vote of 100 to 7. The rules were then changed so as to allow the election of ward and county committeemen and primary election officers on the second Saturday in September, the date of the county primaries. This will require the holding of the district meetings in August instead of May. Under this plan there will not be a reorganization of the city committee until after the September primaries.

Joseph C. Wasson offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing for the appointment of a committee of nine to recommend to Gov. Pennypacker the appointment of two Republicans to be members of the board of personal registration commissioners for Pittsburgh. The committee will also solicit the Republican members of the legislature within the city and the presidents of council to join with it in the recommendation to the governor. Chairman Leslie appointed this committee with Mr. Wasson as chairman: W. J. McCaskey, W. C. McKinley, A. A. Dinnan, John B. Barbour, Jr., Ebenezer Oliver, D. K. Barton, Robert Roy and L. C. Alpern. The committee will meet at Republican headquarters this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

George H. Calvert of Etna, and William T. Tredway of Coraopolis, will be candidates for Republican state delegates.

Councilmen Walters and Wasson, Republicans of the Twentieth ward, secured the appointment of Robert Monahan as a sanitary officer. The man was put to work by Director Ridgway. When Director Clark heard of it he told Mayor Guthrie and Ridgway the man had been arrested on the day of the February election, charged with false registration. Monahan was removed yesterday and the councilmen have appealed to the mayor. Monahan says there was no foundation for his arrest on election day. He was a Jenkinson supporter.

ORDER ANOTHER ADVANCE.

Window Glass Manufacturers Raise Prices 2 1-2 Per Cent.

Window glass prices were given a further advance of 2½ per cent at a meeting held yesterday afternoon by the United States Window Glass Manufacturers' association, in the Fort Pitt hotel. About 40 manufacturers were present.

A proposition was offered to advance prices to 5 per cent, but it was decided to compromise on a 2½ per cent advance. This action places the manufacturers' price on window glass at 30 and 2½ per cent off the list on single thickness, and 90 and 7½ per cent off on double thickness.

Ladies' Social Session at Elk's Club.

A ladies' social session of the Elks' club was held in the club house, 1940 Fifth avenue, last evening. The feature of the evening was an illustrated lecture given by James W. Erwin of San Francisco on "In the Land of the Jap, the Chino and the Filipino." Over 150 illustrations were used in depicting scenes from the time the boat left the Golden Gate until it returned. After the lecture refreshments were served and this in turn was followed by dancing. About 200 members and ladies were present.

Trolley Line to Emsworth.

By July 1, it is said, the bridge over Spruce run will have been completed, as also the one over Lowry's run, in Emsworth, and that the Pittsburgh Railways Company will then operate cars to Emsworth. Then, it is said, an electric line from Avalon to Beaver Falls will be opened up as soon as the tracks are laid.

ABORIGINAL METHODS OF COOKING ADOPTED

San Franciscans Pay High Prices for Food and Live in Tents in the Parks.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., April 19.—Fully 200,000 people have been forced to seek shelter in the public squares of the city in consequence of the fire. These people are living in tents constructed of sheets, blankets, bits of rugs and strips of carpet.

The cooking is being done after the Indian fashion. Impromptu stoves are being constructed with the bricks that before the earthquake constituted the chimneys of the neighborhood and over that the canned goods and preserved stuffs are prepared. Fresh meat is now quite out of the question. It is almost impossible to get eggs or milk. Grocery shops asked and got 75 cents for a loaf of bread. Soda crackers are being sold at 10 cents apiece. Ordinarily canned goods that generally retail for 10 to 15 cents are being disposed of for $1 per can.

REASONS FOR GRAFTING.

Cincinnati Reform Leader Discusses Causes of and Remedies for Municipal Corruption.

After a short business meeting in which $1,000 was pledged for the San Francisco sufferers, one of the largest audiences ever gathered in the assembly rooms of the Pittsburgh board of trade listened to Herbert S. Bigelow, pastor of the Vine Street Congregational church, Cincinnati, and one of the foremost leaders in the recent successful reform campaign movement in that city, deliver a lecture on the "The Causes of, and the Remedies for Municipal Corruption." By way of introduction to his lecture Mr. Bigelow said:

"Even we preachers cannot tell why such disasters as the recent horror at San Francisco are visited upon the race. However, they at least enable men to show their kindness of heart and their willingness to aid the distressed." Taking up the subject of municipal corruption, Dr. Bigelow said:

"I do not believe that grafting and corruption in our municipal government is due to lack of interest on the part of our citizens. It is, rather, I believe, due to the very complex form of our government and the difficulty in making the legislator directly responsible to the voter."

REPENTS WHEN TOO LATE.

Karl Astrand Jumps from Smithfield Street Bridge, Cries "Save Me," and Sinks Beneath Surface.

Karl Astrand, aged 35, a civil engineer of Stockholm, Sweden, committed suicide by jumping off the Smithfield street bridge at noon yesterday. He rose to the surface once and shouted "Save me." Then he sank to rise no more. His body was recovered two hours later.

A letter was found in Astrand's pocket from his wife, addressed to Massachusetts avenue, Charleroi, Pa., which indicated the man had been in this country for six months, but had been unable to earn sufficient money to send for his wife and children.

After drinking the contents of a bottle supposed to contain cocaine and whisky, Edward Shields dropped dead yesterday morning at the home of George B. Stuckrath, 29 Federal street. He was a barber, but had been out of work.

Herashin Mererrskora, aged 21, a laborer, was struck by a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train on the bridge over Brady street at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and instantly killed. He lived at 2118 Forbes street.

NO WORDS WASTED

A Swift Transformation Briefly Described.

About food, the following brief but emphatic letter from a Georgia woman goes straight to the point and is convincing:

"My frequent attacks of indigestion and palpitation of the heart culminated 3 years ago in a sudden and desperate illness, from which I arose enfeebled in mind and body. The doctors advised me to live on cereals, but none of them agreed with me until I tried Grape-Nuts food and Postum Coffee. The more I used them the more I felt convinced that they were just what I needed, and in a short time they made a different woman of me. My stomach and heart troubles were cured as by magic, and my mind was restored and is as clear as it ever was.

"I gained flesh and strength so rapidly that my friends were astonished. Postum and Grape-Nuts have benefited me so greatly that I am glad to bear this testimony." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

MAYOR RECEIVES A SETBACK.

Allegheny Common Council Passes Measure Regardless of His Veto.

The first real test of the strength of Mayor Kirschler in Allegheny common council came last night in an ordinance authorizing the payment of $150 to W. H. Clark, for plans and specifications drawn by him for the new engine house in the Fourteenth ward, which was passed over the mayor's veto.

The council sustained the mayor in his veto of the ordinance exonerating the Presbyterian hospital from the payment of taxes. The ordinance fixing the salary of the city treasurer at $5,000 per annum was laid over for a month.

SOMERSET, PA., April 19.—(Special.)—Ejectment writs were issued tonight by Prothonotary Charles C. Shafer against 16 strikers who live in Berwind-White Company houses at Windber. The writs were sent by special messenger to Sheriff W. C. Begley, who is in personal charge of the strike and it is expected the miners will be evicted tomorrow morning.

When the strikers accepted employment with the company they signed a contract to vacate company houses after five days' notice. It is feared another riot will result when the strikers are turned out.

THE MARATHON MYSTERY

By BURTON E. STEVENSON,

Author of "The Holladay Case," "Cadets of Gascony," Etc.

Copyright, 1904, by Henry Holt & Co.

Godfrey looked at his notes musingly. "It's a tangled web," he said, at last. "A tangled web—there's lots of threads that need straightening out. But, except for that first point, it's not to be denied that Jimmy the Dude fits in with all the particulars. He was an acquaintance of Thompson, perhaps a friend; if he stole the key, he could have entered the rooms at any time; he's certainly capable of killing a man, upon provocation. But the mystery is—what could the provocation have been? To protect Miss Croydon? But then, why kill Thompson? That shooting of an unconscious man argues a ferocity scarcely human. Robbery? But Jimmy nor any other sane person would deliberately murder a man under the eyes of a witness. Well, tomorrow will tell the story—today, rather. If Miss Croydon identifies him, that settles it—but I've a feeling that it will be a long time before I can fill in the rest of the drama. However, I'll keep these notes."

He was whistling softly to himself as he tore the sheets from the pad. Somehow, the case no longer harried and perplexed him as it had from the moment he recognized Miss Croydon, cowering against the wall in suite fourteen; a curious load was lifted from him; she was not guilty, she had committed at most only an indiscretion: she was free from stain. The thought pleased him, elated him. He would lead the pack far away from her—the papers, the suspicious public. She should emerge unsmirched, even in the least degree.

He folded the sheets and docketed them:

THE MARATHON MYSTERY.
A Tragedy in Five Acts.

Then he placed them carefully in a file case. They were to confront him, before long, as an evidence of his own insufficiency—so far from having witnessed three acts of the tragedy, it was merely the prologue which had been enacted before him.

CHAPTER VIII.

The Fog Thickens.

The coroner's court was crowded, as it always is at any hearing presenting features of morbid or sensational interest, and Goldberg, with an inborn love of the theatric, arranged his witnesses so as to lead gradually to the climax, the denouement. He put the janitor on the stand first, and then had Simmonds tell his story. Some medical testimony followed as to the exact nature of Thompson's injuries, and the bullet, which had been extracted, was put in evidence—it was plainly much too large to have come from Miss Croydon's pistol. Finally, Miss Croydon herself was called. A little gasp of delicious excitement ran through the crowd as she appeared at the door of the witness room. Here was a titbit to touch the palates of even the jaded police reporters.

Godfrey, looking at her as she came steadily forward to the stand, felt his heart warm with admiration. She seemed perfectly composed, and if not perfectly at ease, at least as nearly so as any woman of her position could be in such a place. Godfrey was pleased to see Drysdale in close attendance, and he nodded to him encouragingly.

Miss Croydon told her story clearly and with an accent of sincerity there was no doubting. It differed in one detail from the story she had told the night before. Thompson, she said, had perceived the intruder and there had been a short, fierce struggle before he fell under the blow of the pipe. He was not unconscious, but was struggling to his feet again, when his assailant shot him.

Jury, coroner, reporters listened with close attention. Godfrey watched her with a grim little smile at her superb assurance, her perfect poise. Then he glanced at the jury and smiled again as he noted their seriously respectful faces. When she had finished, Goldberg began a brief examination.

"That is not precisely the story you told last night, Miss Croydon," he suggested.

"No," she said; "no—I was too startled, then, too over-wrought to think quite clearly. This morning I endeavored to recall exactly what occurred."

"And you believe that you have succeeded?"

"Yes, sir; I am sure of it."

"You would say, then, I suppose, that the deceased had been killed in self-defence."

"I am not familiar with the niceties of the law, sir," she answered steadily.

"But there was a struggle?"

"Yes, sir."

"And the deceased was endeavoring to inflict some injury upon his adversary?"

"He was doing his best to do so, I should say, sir."

The coroner paused for a moment and glanced at the jury, but none of them seemed disposed to ask any questions. Then Goldberg made a sign to Simmonds. He left the room, but reappeared in a moment, leading in Jimmy the Dude.

Not until they were quite near did Miss Croydon perceive them; then, as her eyes met the prisoner's, she half started from her chair, her face like marble. As for Jimmy, Godfrey was astonished to perceive the fascinated gaze he bent upon Miss Croydon. What was the connection between them? Where could they possibly have met? Was Jimmy guilty, after all. Certainly Simmonds had no longer any doubt of it, to judge by his beatific expression of countenance.

It was over in an instant—Miss Croydon gripped back her self-control and the prisoner managed to remove his eyes from her; but Goldberg had perceived their agitation, and the gaze he bent upon the witness grew perceptibly more stern.

"Miss Croydon," he began, "you have described the guilty man as short and heavy-set with a dark moustache turning up at the ends. Look at the prisoner before you—is he the man?"

"He is not," replied the witness in a firm voice and without an instant's hesitation.

Jimmy was again watching her with expressive eyes.

"You are sure?"

GAMES TODAY.

Cincinnati at Exposition park, Brooklyn at New York, Philadelphia at Boston.

The Pirates could not bat yesterday and therefore again lost to the Cincinnati Reds. They secured two runs, but were never in the lead. The Reds had Haford on the rubber, a lanky youngster from the Vermont mountains. Only five hits were made off him. At the start the Pirates hit him pretty hard, but the fielding back of him was superb, in spite of the three errors made back of him. In the first inning Wagner hit to left for what seemed good for at least two bases, but Jack Barry made a sensational catch. Jack also caught a fly from Smith's bat in the second inning after a long run. In the fourth inning Wagner reached first on a fumble by Corcoran and went to third on a slashing two-bagger by Nealon. Leach, who played for the first time, popped a fly to Corcoran. Ritchey hit a bounder plump into Carr's hands, but the latter let it slip away. Wagner scored on the error. A double play on Ritchey and Carisch ended the inning. Not until the seventh did the Pirates succeed in crossing the plate again. Ritchey started off with a single that Corcoran could not reach. Carisch struck out and then Willis, playing the hit-and-run game, smashed the ball to right for a single. Ritchey scored. After the seventh inning only three Pirates reached first base.

Willis made his first appearance in Pittsburgh and was pretty freely hit. He was still suffering from the effects of the 13-inning opening game at St. Louis. This does not mean that he cannot last the distance, but he was called upon to exert himself too much so early in the season and consequently feels the ill effects. The Reds got one or more hits off him in nearly every inning and wound up in the ninth by hitting for three singles and a three-bagger. A hit by Corcoran in the second and a wild throw by Smith over Nealon's head gave the Reds a run. In the fifth inning two singles, an error and a wild pitch netted two more for the Reds. A two-bagger by Barry and a single by Carr chased one more run over the plate. In the ninth Haford, Huggins and Barry singled in succession. Carr forced Haford at the plate, but the bases remained full. Champion Seymour hit for three bases, bringing in three runs. He scored himself on Delehanty's out at first. Attendance, 4,106. Score:

BOSTON, April 19.—Before the largest morning crowd ever assembled in this city, Boston defeated New York today 2 to 0. Newton was batted hard in the first two innings, but after that Boston could do nothing with his delivery. Young was effective throughout the game. Attendance, morning, 12,125; afternoon, 27,237. GIVE MILLIONS FOR RELIEF FUND

Senate and House Provide for $1,000,000 While More Than This Is Aggregate of Offers.

AID FROM EVERYWHERE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Congress today passed and President Roosevelt signed a resolution appropriating $1,000,000 for the relief of the victims of the California earthquake and placing the resources of the federal government at the disposal of the authorities superintending the work of relief. The resolution as originally offered in the senate by Mr. Perkins appropriated $500,000, but in the house was amended on motion of Mr. Tawney to appropriate $1,000,000. The senate quickly concurred in the house action and the joint resolution was signed by the President at 6 o'clock this evening. Following is the full text of this resolution as adopted.

Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that the secretary of war is hereby authorized and directed to procure in open market or otherwise subsistence and quartermaster's supplies in addition to such supplies belonging to the military establishment and available, and issue the same to such destitute persons as have been rendered homeless or are in needy circumstances as a result of the earthquake which occurred April 18, and the attending conflagration, and in executing this joint resolution the secretary of war is directed to co-operate with the authorities of the state of California and the mayor of the city of San Francisco, Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda and such other cities on the Pacific coast as may have sustained damages.

But be it further resolved that the secretary of the treasury, secretary of the navy, and the secretary of commerce and labor are hereby directed to co-operate with the secretary of war in extending relief and assistance to the stricken people herein referred to to the extent of the use of the naval vessels, revenue cutters and other vessels and government supplies under their control on the Pacific coast.

Be it further resolved, that to enable the secretary of war to execute the provisions of this joint resolution there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $1,000,000, to be expended under the direction and in the discretion of the secretary of war.

New York is Liberal.

NEW YORK, April 19.—(Special.)—Contributions by the Empire City for her suffering Pacific coast sister aggregated three-quarters of a million dollars by this evening. Of this sum it was announced at the Standard Oil building that John D. Rockefeller had subscribed $100,000. The same amount was raised on the stock exchange, $50,000 being pledged within 15 minutes after the appointment of a collection committee.

Mayor McClellan appointed a committee of 100 citizens to solicit contributions for the San Francisco sufferers. He also issued a proclamation urging that all citizens of New York give as they were able in aid of the destitute.

Women leaders of society agreed to lend their influence as patronesses for two benefit performances at the Hippodrome Saturday afternoon and evening next. The entire receipts, which it is expected will amount to $30,000, will be turned over to the relief fund.

Subscription lists were also opened on the Consolidated exchange and on the cotton, the coffee, the produce and the metal exchanges, and the sums offered reached into the thousands.

Not to be outdone by the prominent women backing the Hippodrome benefit, a big euchre party will be given by the California club on Friday, April 27, at the Waldorf-Astoria. It is hoped that at least $20,000 will be realized from the two performances.

Mayor McClellan announced that without solicitation more than $4,000 had been received at the city hall for the relief cause, most of it being in checks. The theatrical managers have arranged several benefit performances for the relief of the stricken people. It was announced at the office of Daniel Frohman that the entire receipts of the two hundredth performance of "Peter Pan," in which Maude Adams is at present starring, and which will take place tomorrow evening, will be devoted to the relief fund.

Included among the contributors is the Carnegie hero fund commission, $25,000, and Charles M. Schwab, $5,000.

PORTLAND, ORE., April 19.—In addition to the Telegram fund of $15,000 raised yesterday morning, Portland business men up to 2 o'clock this afternoon had contributed $110,000, making a total of $125,000 for the relief of the San Francisco earthquake sufferers.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph, tonight telegraphed to President Weaver of the University of California at Berkley saying he will contribute $100,000 toward the erection of a new building for the university.

CHICAGO, April 19.—At a meeting of the Chicago Commercial association tonight, subscriptions amounting to $119,850 were made. It is planned to raise $1,000,000. Meetings of various organizations were held in all parts of the city tonight and arrangements were made to work in conjunction with the relief committee appointed by Mayor Dunne.

SEATTLE, April 19.—The Times reported today that it had raised $21,000 for the San Francisco sufferers and that money was still coming in. It was said that $10,000 more would be added before night.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Drexel & Company and Brown Bros. & Company today contributed $10,000 each for the relief of the earthquake sufferers.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 19.—After a consultation with a number of business men at noon today Mayor Bookwalter sent the following telegram to Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco:

"The people of Indianapolis authorize you to make a draft upon me for $10,000 for the relief of the suffering people of your city. Let us know if further assistance will be needed."

RESIDENTS FLEE FROM BOMBARDING

Heroic Measures Including Destruction of Many Homes Taken to Check Flames.

PEOPLE ARE PHILOSOPHICAL

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Thousands upon thousands of people are fleeing from the fire today. They are flocking to the ferries, to the parks, to the military reservation and to the suburbs. Residents on the hillside gathered in the central portion of the city where seemingly the roaring furnace was consuming the business section. There watched the towering mounds of flames and speculated as to the extent of the territory that was doomed. Suddenly there was whispered alarm up and down the long line of watchers and they hurried away to drag clothing, cooking utensils and scant provisions through the streets. From Grant avenue the procession moved westward. Men and women dragged trunks, packed huge bundles of blankets, boxes of provisions—everything. Wagons could not be hired except by paying the most extortionate rates.

But there was no panic. The people are calm, stunned. They seem not to realize the extent of the calamity. They hear that the city is destroyed insofar as business plants are concerned; they tell each other in the most natural tone that their residences were destroyed by the flames, but there is no hysteria, no outcry, no criticisms.

Mayor Schmitz and Chief of Police Dinan have been forced from place to place by the flames. Daybreak found them directing the municipal council, which is a committee of safety, from the Fairmont hotel, the beautiful structure that stood on top of Nob Hill. But that caught fire and they retreated to the Cushing at Larkin and Sutter streets, then to the North End police station in Sacramento street. Here the council, composed of the financial leaders of the city, met this morning and decided to resort to the most heroic measures yet undertaken since the city has been in the path of devastation. This decision was to bombard the entire section of the city lying along the east side of Vanners avenue from Golden Gate avenue to Pacific avenue, 16 blocks in all, containing the homes of many millionaires and apartment houses.

The military was notified of this action and barrels of gunpowder, the only remaining explosive in the city, were taken from the Presidio, Fort McDowell, Alcatraz and other nearby posts. Hundreds of police, regiments of soldiers and scores of volunteers were sent into the doomed district to warn the people to flee. These heroically responded to the demand of law, and went bravely on their way.

POLICE NEED A GARAGE.

Seven Automobilists Are Arrested in the East End for Not Observing the Laws.

Director Ridgway's orders to the police force of the East End in regard to automobiles are now being carried out. All machines without license and those being run at a high rate of speed are being stopped and their owners, or chauffeurs taken to the East End police station.

The police yesterday arrested Earl Keyser of Euclid avenue, Roger J. Addly of 1100 Herberton avenue, J. F. Hoey of 210 North Fairmont avenue, Frank McCann of 824 Farragut avenue, Sam Emmet of Penn avenue, Kenneth Burley of 5929 Broad street, and John Newell of 511 South avenue. The officer who arrested Newel stated there were no lights on his automobile.

INCESSANT CRIES FOR WATER HEARD FROM ALL

Thirsty People and Industrious Soldiers Alike Suffer from Lack of the Precious Fluid.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Today was bright and warm. The sun beat down on the tired workers and rescuers. There is scarcely any water to relieve the thirst of the suffering. The dead, in many instances, are lying in the streets and the ruins. The soldiers are doing all in their power to remove the bodies that a pestilence may be averted. It has been necessary repeatedly to remove the injured from places where they had sought refuge, for the fire kept increasing with alarming rapidity. "Water" is the incessant cry of the firemen, and the people; one wants it to fight, the others to drink; but there is only a scant drinking supply.

From the water front the burned city can be seen today in all its smoky nakedness. From the Pacific Mail dock to Vallejo street, on the west side, a distance of two miles, wreckage and ruin is the rule. Although the fire did not jump East street, the damage has been enormous. The filled-in land facing the ferry building is a succession of little valleys, some four, others six feet deep. The ferry tower itself is out of plumb and the big building much twisted by the earthquake.

Looking up Market street from the Ferry building, the city is a smouldering mass of ruins. Great manufacturies, mercantile houses, banks and office buildings are nowhere to be seen.

ENTIRE CITY IS DOOMED, WIRES GEN. FUNSTON

Sub-Treasury Is Destroyed and Guards Are Protecting Money in the Exposed Vaults.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The war department has received the following from Gen. Funston:

"Fire crossed Van Ness avenue to the west at 3:30 p. m. Almost certain now that entire city will be destroyed. Have ordered troops from Monterey and everything is going as well as could be expected. On account of confusion, it has been impossible to locate individuals inquired for, but attention will be given that matter as soon as practicable."

Another dispatch from Gen. Funston tonight says: "Official report at police headquarters this date states that the sub-treasury is entirely destroyed by fire with the exception of the vaults which contain all cash on hand. Suitable guards have been ordered to protect this money."

ARE MOVING TO OAKLAND.

Bank Commissioners and Many Business Men Transfer Headquarters to That City.

OAKLAND, CAL., April 19.—The state board of bank commissioners has opened offices in this city and will meet with the bankers of the state to devise ways and means to ameliorate the financial stringency. Many San Francisco commission houses and wholesale insurance agents are securing quarters in Oakland for the transaction of business.

William J. Gorham, mayor of Alameda, and president of the Gorham Rubber Company, suffered the loss of his entire plant and stock. The value of the former was $200,000; the latter, $100,000.

MALEFACTORS ARE KILLED WITHOUT BEING WARNED

Gen. Funston Employs Cocked Revolver and Drawn Sword to Force Unwilling Citizens to Work. Food Supply Carefully Doled Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—Gen. Funston is co-operating with Mayor Schmitz, whose orders to all officers are to kill without warning malefactors. When men have been needed to carry out the plans of rescue, they have been pressed into service. In a few instances it was necessary to resort to the cocked revolver and drawn sword, after which there was no hesitancy.

Every man who ventured near the fire surrounding the Fairmount hotel today was impressed by Lieut. McMillan. This young officer has a cool eye and a wicked looking pistol and, the way the men jumped when his gun was pointed was interesting. McMillan was everywhere directing operations and his energy earned the admiration of even those whom he forced to work.

The Presidio reservation, the vast Richmond district of thousands of acres, Golden Gate park and the surrounding hills, resemble one vast picnic ground. Tents and improvised coverings have been erected everywhere. fire places built in the streets, beds and matresses thrown down all over the section. The people thus situated are philosophical.

There is only one danger, and that is that the food supply will run out. Every grocery in San Francisco has been taken by the authorities and each family is being sold only one article at a time. In many places the police and military prohibit overcharging. Gen. Funston announced this morning that rations would soon reach the city and then the people will be supplied from the Presidio. Bakeries have already been built within the reservation and the bread supply, therefore, has not failed completely. The government also has begun to aid in the progress of the people out of the city to Oakland, Berkley and Alameda. Tug boats and steamers are being pressed into service for this purpose, and there is a vast army on the way to the ferries.

Gentlemen—At 40 my hair began to turn gray. A friend on my road lost his place because his gray hair made him look older than he was. Profiting by his experience, I began using Hay's Hairhealth, and I have the same dark brown curly hair that I had at 21. Have held my position, though many younger men, whose only fault was their gray hair, have been dismissed. I thank you for my position.—N. J. RAILROAD CONDUCTOR.

A TRIO of entertainments were given yesterday in honor of the marriage of Miss Emma Eleanor Humbird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Humbird, of Morewood avenue, Shadyside, and Southard Hay of Allegheny, to be solemnized tomorrow afternoon in Trinity Protestant Episcopal church. Early in the afternoon Mr. Hay's sister, Mrs. John Henderson Stewart, entertained at an informal luncheon for Miss Humbird and her attendants, Miss Emma C. Humbird, Miss Lucy Lewis Hay, Miss Edith D. Hay, Miss Margaret Hay and Miss Anica Humbird, together with the hostess' married sister, Mrs. Keppelle Hall of Dayton, O. Jacqueminot roses formed the centerepiece and added their charm to the table. In the evening following the rehearsal Miss Humbird entertained the same girls at an 8 o'clock dinner, when she gave each a daintily fashioned gold pin. At the same time Mr. Hay gave his bachelor dinner at the Pittsburgh club, when each man received a handsome scarf pin. They were Lewis Stewart of New York, Clinton L. Childs, John H. B. Phillips, A. Marshall Ball, Moses Bedell Suydam, James S. Humbird, Jr., Bayard M. Stewart, John C. Humbird and Charles Foster.

THE GAZETTE PATTERN.

A Bordeaux Tussah.

The French women, who revel in dainty frocks, are finding a new delight in this semi-princesse design of Bordeaux red tussah silk. The model, in fact, is well adapted to development in materials of the pongee genre. The skirt is finished with a medium-sized hem with a tuck of the same size. About the knees three bands of lace insertion are stitched in decorative effect which are repeated higher up after a space of several inches. About the hips the fullness is disposed of in tiny stitched tucks which end on either side of a broad plait at the back. Above the waist line the skirt rises in a narrow lace-bordered girdle. The blouse carries out the same decorative scheme introduced upon the skirt, with the addition of a dainty yoke of embroidered linen cut in one-piece with a high collar.

The sleeves are novel in finish, consisting of elbow puffs gauged into deep-shaped cuffs, bordered with insertion and finished top and bottom with lace ruffles to match.

LA FOLLETTE IS HEARD ON RATES

Attacks Railroads for Over-Capitalizing in Argument in Senate on Hepburn Bill.

THE TILLMAN-HOPKINS CLASH

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The senate today appropriated $4,000 to pay the expenses of bringing home the bodies of the Kearsarge victims; listened to an explanation by Mr. Bailey concerning the proceedings of yesterday's Democratic senatorial caucus; heard the first half of an exhaustive speech by Mr. LaFollette on the railroad rate bill and witnessed a decidedly spirited encounter between Mr. Tillman and Mr. Hopkins concerning the recent Chicago bank failure.

Mr. Tillman read newspaper charges that the Illinois senator had used his official position to prevent punishment for violation of the banking law and Mr. Hopkins responded by charging the South Carolina senator with approving the lynching of negroes, with securing his election to the senate by suppressing the negro vote. He also declared that Mr. Tillman had changed the official report of his last speech on the bank question so as to make it appear that he (Mr. Hopkins) had evaded a question and to this Mr. Tillman responded that he had done nothing of the kind. The colloquy at last became so bitter that it was necessary to call the senators to order.

Mr. LaFollette attacked the over-capitalization of the railroads and contended for the broadest construction of the right of congress to legislate for the control of the roads. He said that the pending bill was defective in many important respects; took a position in support of the Bailey non-suspension amendment, and announced himself as opposed to a broad court review of the findings of the interstate commerce commission.

MINERS ARE MAKING MANY NEW DEMANDS

Conference With Local Operators Is Deadlocked, but Will Continue in Session.

Coal operators and miners of the Pittsburgh district continued their wage scale conference yesterday without reaching any agreement, and the sessions will undoubtedly be continued for a week or more. It is reported that the miners have presented a long list of new demands and announce themselves as being insistent that they be granted. The demand which meets with the greatest opposition from the operators is one calling for a uniform scale for outside day men. The operators are firmly resisting this on the claim that the class of men generally employed for this work is such as to make it inconsistent to pay a uniform wage scale.

The miners are also demanding that the mine mules be delivered to the driver each morning, cleaned and harnessed at the expense of the company. This demand is also being firmly resisted. It is also said that the miners will demand that the operators increase the check-off at the demand of the district organization. This demand is in preparation of raising a strike benefit, and will be bitterly fought by the operators.

While an early agreement is not expected, it is believed the miners will finally recede from their position. The operators claim that if all the new demands are granted that the cost of coal will be increased by from 7 to 10 cents a ton.

NO GRAFT IS DISCOVERED IN THE MARKET LEASES

But Councilmanic Committee Investigating Matter Will Meet Again on Monday for More Evidence.

The joint committee of Pittsburgh councils, appointed to investigate the manner of leasing stalls in the Diamond market, held a meeting yesterday. There was no evidence of graft in the leasing of the stalls, although one man said it was all a question of politics.

Max Levinson, whose fish firm has secured the Gledhill and Pulpress stands, said he got the lease from E. M. Bigelow because he promised to conduct a better stall than the old owners had.

D. H. Lewis, the market clerk, said he did not interfere with Levinson's taking the stands, as Director James W. Clark had instructed him to remain away from the market house on April 1 and not go there until the next day, which would be after the inauguration of Mayor Guthrie. He thought it was unjust to take the stalls from Gledhill and Pulpress. In March, at the direction of Bigelow, Lewis says, he made out four year leases for holders of stalls but later the leases were changed, among them that of Levinson, held by Pulpress and Gledhill.

John S. Wilson, who formerly had a butcher stall in the market house but now has a restaurant, said his butcher's stalls, Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12, were taken from him without compensation and given to August Eberhart. Eberhart, he said, was brother-in-law of Select councilman "Jack" Hughes, and Councilman Edwards helped Hughes. Bigelow, he said, tried to throw him out years ago and he had kept the stalls only because late C. L. Magee stood by him. Abraham Schwartz, who has two fruit stands in the market, said the McTighe family had thrown him out of the booths, when his leases had expired. He regained the stalls through political influence. The committee will meet again on Monday at 2 p. m.

E. J. BLISS DEMOLISHES A POPULAR ARGUMENT

Shows That Advertisers Instead of Increasing the Cost of Shoes to the Consumer, Has Materially Reduced It.

"When you buy a pair of shoes," said E. J. Bliss, managing director of the Regal Shoe Co., in talking with a reporter, "you pay for rent and salesmanship, as well as for leather. The rental charge varies with the number of pairs sold daily from a store, and, of course, the fewer pairs sold the higher is the cost per pair.

"A little store that does not advertise and therefore sells only a few pairs daily, cannot afford to carry in stock a sufficient variety of shapes, sizes and widths to fit all feet properly and promptly. The cost per pair for rent alone in such an unadvertised store will be many times the cost per pair for rent and advertising, combined in a Regal store, where the sales are many times larger.

"This vast increase in the sales of Regals is effected by an advertising outlay that is only about one-third that of the rent paid. Then, too, you must remember that we eliminate the jobber's or wholesaler's profit, as our shoes go directly from our factory to the consumer. The production of good shoes at a reasonable price can only be effected by making them in larger quantities and in selling them at the lowest possible salesmanship expense."

"York State Folks."

"York State Folks," with the original cast and scenery, will return to the Alvin theater next week. This attractive drama of village life is fine and wholesome and one that appeals to all classes of theatergoers. Ray L. Royce still plays Myron Cooper and James Lackaye will again be seen as the stubborn and cranky Simon Peter Martin.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF THIRD RIOT VICTIM

Two Thousand Men in Procession—Winber Is Quiet and Miners Orderly.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

JOHNSTOWN, PA., April 19.—The funeral of Simon Vorcheck, the third and last of the striking miners killed in Monday evening's riot at Windber, was held there today. The body was followed to the grave by 2,000 people. The service was in charge of the Rev. Father Saas, pastor of St. John's Roman Catholic church, who was assisted by the Rev. Balough and the Rev. Stefi of the Greek Rite and Slavish Catholic churches, respectively. The streets were filled with people, silent and orderly. Armed deputies mingled with the crowd, and squads of the state constabulary were within easy distance.

Father Saas at the close of the service urged the striking miners to refrain from violence and to win their cause on grounds of right and justice. Organizers Genter, Goerek and Gill marched in the funeral procession. With National Organizer Purcell and President William Currie of sub-district No. 7, they attended both funerals yesterday. Organizer Genter said this morning no mass meetings of the miners would be called within the next few days, and that there would be no further action until bitterness among the men had died down.

No more men were at work today than yesterday. The union organizers say the number is growing less each day and many of the idle men are leaving town.

Sheriff Begley this morning sent to jail at Somerset Daniel Meckek, who was shot in the leg in Monday night's riot. He is charged with rioting and was committed to the sheriff's custody without a hearing until such a time as he may appear before the proper magistrate without danger of more trouble. The saloons of the town were closed today before the noon hour.

It is stated that within 30 days the company will have 500 men at work. The negotiations have been carried on secretly between Charles Kirk, president of the New Castle chamber of commerce, and John M. Hanson and other officers of the Standard Steel Car Company.

FAINTING SPELLS

CAUSED BY WEAK CONDITION OF THE BLOOD.

Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the Remedy Which Actually Makes New Blood.

Impoverished blood is the cause of many troubles that are not recognized as arising from it. Impoverishment of the blood may originate from overstudy, lack of exercise, anxiety or worry, or it may follow an acute disease such as fever, or even result from a cold. Physicians term impoverished blood "anaemia," which is a Greek word, meaning "too little blood."

Anaemia makes the patient short of breath so that there is often a sense of suffocation, sometimes there is a cough and the sufferer seems to be going into consumption, at others there is a murmur of the heart and heart disease is feared. In the following case severe fainting spells were an alarming symptom resulting from "too little blood."

Mrs. George Forrester, of 7 Curtis street, Watertown, N. Y., says: "Some time ago I took a heavy cold and it left me in a very weak condition. I became worse and worse until finally I had anaemia. I lost flesh and appetite, had no color and was subject to fainting spells. Sometimes they would attack me suddenly and I would fall to the floor with hardly any warning.

"I had one of our best physicians, but after he had been attending me about a month without any improvement in my condition, I decided to see what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills would do for me.

"The pills were well known to me, for about two years before, members of my family had taken them with the best results. I soon found that the pills were just what I needed, for I soon began to notice an improvement. After I had taken them a while longer I was entirely cured, and we all believe in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and recommend them highly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Forrester because they actually make new blood. They do that one thing and they do it well. Impoverished blood is deficient in red corpuscles, little bodies in the blood only to be seen through the microscope, which carry nourishment to all parts of the body. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills increase the number of these red corpuscles and in this way send health and strength to every tissue. Medical authorities are agreed that the health of the nervous system depends directly upon the red corpuscles in the blood, and in this way Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured many nervous disorders as well as blood diseases that have not yielded to ordinary treatment.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

HEAVY LIQUIDATION IN N. Y. STOCKS

On Sales of More Than 1,500,000 Shares Prices Declined from 1 to 9 Points—Amalgamated Dividend Increased—Local Stocks Weak.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market yesterday was active and feverish from start to finish. On sales of more than 1,500,000 shares prices declined from one to nine points and closed at or near the lowest. The news from San Francisco, confirming the worst fears, and the possible effects upon the eastern money market, were the factors which induced liquidation. The market was not free from raids by the bearish traders, but at the same time there was very little support, and at one time the trading bordered on demoralization. A noticeable feature about the market was that the weakness was not confined to the comparatively small but prominent group of stocks that will suffer the largest direct loss from the San Francisco disaster. On the contrary, the greatest decline was in Reading, and it was also one of the leaders in point of activity.

At the opening, which was lower, the principal buying came from London and the shorts. The liquidation in Reading was particularly heavy. To account for it Wall street had a story that one of the largest speculators in the stock is now in San Francisco, and that he was probably induced by the horrors of the surroundings in that city to give orders to liquidate his speculative accounts.

United Railways of San Francisco was again very weak and touched new low points. The common broke from 71 to 62 and the preferred from 73 to 60½. There was a recovery during the middle portion of the session on the announcement that the company carried large insurance, and that from the latest advices the losses to its property would be covered by $500,000, but with later news, indicating that destruction of life and property continued, both stocks closed near the lowest prices of the day.

The trading in Union Pacific was on an enormous scale. A rally of 1 per cent occurred shortly after the opening, but it was not retained, and the stock finally broke to 150⅝, closing at 150⅞. Southern Pacific declined to 64½ and Atchison to 89. St. Paul was notably weak, breaking from 175¾ to 171¼.

United States Steel common withstood the bearish pressure and the liquidation better than any other active stock on the list, and it was not until late in the day that it gave way. Its net decline was only ¾ per cent.

Some interest centered in Amalgamated Copper, which held fairly steady during the morning hours. Shortly after noon it broke to 109, but recovered to 110 when the announcement was made that the directors had declared a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent and an extra dividend of one-fourth of one per cent. In the depression which occurred during the closing hour the stock sold off to 108⅝ and closed at 108¾. Anaconda Copper broke from 276¾ to 266½, and closed at 268½. Smelting common broke from 158⅜ to 155 and closed at the lowest.

Some of the more important net losses for the day were as follows: Union Pacific, 4½; Southern Pacific, 2¼; Atchison, 2; St. Paul, 4½; Pennsylvania, 2¾; Reading, 9¼; Norfolk & Western, 2¾; Amalgamated Copper, 2½; Smelting, 3¼; U. S. Steel, ¾; U. S. Steel preferred, 1⅛.

Call loans ranged between 2¾ and 4½ per cent. Time loans were firmer, while sterling exchange was lower, raising hopes of additional imports of gold. Several millions of gold were transferred from New York to San Francisco during the day. It is a probable continuance of this movement which Wall street fears will result in an advance in call loan rates.

The only activity in the local market was in the mining department, and this occurred just before the close, when heavy selling of Cable Consolidated caused a decline to 65c. Ohio Tonopah sold down to 35c and was then offered at 32c, closing at 30c bid. Tonopah Extension sold at 10¾. There were no transactions in United Copper, but the stock was offered down to 63 and closed without bid. Crucible Steel was active and weak, the common selling down to 14 and the preferred to 79½. National Fire Proofing preferred declined to and closed at 26¼. Westinghouse Air Brake sold at 150, a decline of $2 a share. Electric was also slightly lower. Small lots of Pittsburgh Coal preferred sold at 57 to 56¾, and River Coal preferred at 23. Independent Brewing common was active and held steady at 15. The remainder of the list was inactive and closed without important change.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Only once or twice for very brief periods the New York stock market displayed any rallying power yesterday. The news from the Pacific coast grew worse and worse as the day progressed, and finally the money market responded to the situation to some extent with a hardening in both call and time loan rates, but sterling exchange became very weak again and promised to open the way to a resumption of the gold import movement. No actual announcement was made but negotiations were understood to be in progress. There was a deposit of upwards of $3,000,000 at the New York sub-treasury for telegraphic transfer to San Francisco and large shipments were reported to be on their way by express for the same destination.

M. R. Ward, who is in New York wired Morris, Brown & Company a message received from Donald C. Gillies, who is in Oakland. He said: "Conditions in San Francisco indescribable; fires are finishing the destruction of the city." Mr. Gillies is the general manager of the Tonopah Extension Mining Company and is Mr. Schwab's representative in that camp. In his message yesterday he said he hoped to be in Pittsburgh the latter part of next week.

The Pittsburgh representative of one of the large foreign fire insurance companies said yesterday: "You will find that all the big companies will waive technicalities and pay their claims in San Francisco promptly. They did this in the case of the Johnstown flood and paid for buildings destroyed by fire which had been carried far from their foundations." Estimates were made which placed the amount of insurance carried in foreign companies at between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000, and it was calculated that this sum would be transferred from abroad to New York and offset the amount of funds which New York is now shipping to San Francisco.

The Amalgamated Copper directors declared a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent and an extra dividend of ¼ per cent, payable May 28 to stock of record April 26. The annual meeting will be held June 4.

A Chicago dispatch says: The "appellate court today decided that the purchase of optional contracts by one member of the board of trade from another is illegal. The effect of the decision is to do away with "bids and offers" which were bought and sold by certain members of the board after the decision against "puts and calls" was made by the governing committee of the board of trade.

The decision was in a suit brought by a member of the board of trade named Harry Woods against another member named Mark Bates regarding the purchase of 60,000 bushels of wheat. The court declared that the purchase on an optional contract is in violation of the criminal code.

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the South Side Trust Company, the following directors were elected: William Larimer Jones, George A. Howe, Robert Pitcairn, Jr., John H. Ricketson, Jr., Frederick C. Kay, William H. Schuette, A. G. Mitchell, Frank J. Klumpp, J. P. Kerr, James H. Lockhart, H. D. W. English, W. S. Thomson, J. Mushet D. C. Beinhauer, J. B. Laughlin, Charles E. Breitwieser, Taylor Alderdice, Benjamin Page.

The capital stock of the Treasury Tunnel Mines Corporation, organized to mine for gold and other minerals in Colorado, has been listed at the Pittsburgh stock exchange. GOOD SALE IN LIBERTY AVENUE

A. L. Richmond, Jr., Buys the Stevenson Lot at 803 for $140,000.

RAILROAD DEAL OF $50,000

A. L. Richmond, Jr., owner of the Hotel Lincoln, has added to his downtown holdings by the purchase of the W. H. Stevenson property at 803 Liberty avenue for $140,000, or $7,000 a front foot. The deal was made by Charles D. Howell. The lot measures 20x110 feet, extending back to Exchange alley, and adjoins the corner Braden property at the corner of Eighth street, which Mr. Richmond secured nearly two years ago. The Stevenson lot, better known as the M. Levino property, is improved with a four-story brick building which is leased for three years to the Smith-Premier Typewriter Company. This purchase gives Mr. Richmond 40x110 feet at Liberty and Eighth, just opposite the end of Wood street, a corner that is considered one of the very best in the city. At the price paid for the Stevenson lot, $88 a square foot, the property is generally regarded as a good investment in view of the improvements which are certain to follow the removal of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks from Liberty avenue. As a downtown broker remarked the other day, Liberty avenue is practically the only downtown street in the city where the march of improvement has not started. When the railroad tracks are off there is going to be an era of development there that will astound the real estate and business public."

P. & L. E. Buys South Side Strip.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Company has purchased from the Denny estate a strip 940 feet long and from 50 to 109 feet wide in the Thirty-fourth ward for $50,000. The property extends from South Main street to the Singer-Nimick mill and lies on both sides of the railroad tracks. A few old frame houses are the only improvements. The purchase is one of many that the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie has been making lately to enable it to construct more tracks, making a four-track system at this point. Some time ago it secured the long stretch of property bought two years ago by the Wabash in exchange for property on the upper side of Smithfield street on the South Side. Its agents have also been buying from private owners small parcels extending from the Point bridge a mile or more down the Ohio river. Most of these properties extend to the low water line and the right of frontage thus secured will be filled in by the railroad to make ground for its tracks. It is rumored that at least one big manufacturing property in this neighborhood is soon to be taken over by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie to facilitate the carrying out of its plans.

Rushing Work on Schenley Farm.

Nowhere in Pittsburgh is the spring sunshine more welcome than on the big Schenley farm in Oakland, where the Schenley Farms Company has suffered long delays in its improvements because of the exceptionally bad weather that prevailed a large part of the last two months. Since the ground began to dry off the place is fast taking on a new life and the contractors have 200 men at work this week. Besides this force there are six engines, two steam shovels, 100 dump carts and 30 teams. The force of men and teams will be doubled next week and will be divided into a day and a night shift. Four of the houses in the middle of the well known "Casey's Row" are being torn down, three of them being the large stone houses and one a brick dwelling. This is to afford an outlet to Fifth avenue for the first new street east of the boulevard. The curbing and paving of Croghan street between the Fourteenth ward school house and the United Presbyterian church will be started next week. With the exception of 10,000 yards all the grading on the east side of this plan has been finished. The property opposite the Bellefield dwellings and around the blind asylum grounds is down to "grade," and most of it will be seeded at once. On the upper side of the property, near where the old Schenley farm building used to stand, a big force of men and teams are getting the land to the grade established, which will be a gentle slop down to Fifth avenue. The University club has the excavations nearly completed for its $200,000 club house, which will stand in Grant boulevard on one the most attractive sites on the property.

Another Side to Story.

Harry Davis objects to the story published in The Gazette yesterday to the effect that he had sold the former Boyd lot at the southwest corner of West Diamond and Erie streets, Allegheny, to W. D. Cornelius of the Cornelius

S. A. DICKIE.

Mr. Dickie entered the real estate field as a broker and independent operator 20 years ago. During that time he has confined his attention chiefly to East End properties and has seen values on the principal streets increase from $400 to $4,000 a foot. Of late he has built many fine houses. His offices are at Center and South Highland avenues.

Express & Storage Company for $50,000. "I did not sell the property," said Mr. Davis. "I have never offered it for sale and I have no intention of selling it." The Gazette secured its information Wednesday evening direct from Mr. Cornelius, who said he would improve the site with a six-story warehouse and stable to cost $50,000.

Robert C. Hall has got title from the Union National bank to its former holding at Fourth avenue and Market street. The consideration in the deed is $447,332 for 23x122.7 feet at the corner and 31x175 feet, adjoining, in Market street and extending back to Chancery lane. Paul & Kingsley handled the deal.

W. M. Fox has bought two properties in Meyran avenue, Fourteenth ward, for $12,000. Each lot is 22x143 feet and is improved with a good brick house. The former owners were Mrs. Emma Abel and S. W. Robertson.

Pauline E. Sibert has purchased from Mrs. E. McVelange 20x80 feet on the east side of Brushton avenue, and Tioga street and 26x80 feet, adjoining, in Brushton avenue, Thirty-seventh ward, for $12,000. A brick store and two houses stand on the lots.

Leases Fine Summer Home.

The East Liberty branch of the Young Men's Christian association has leased the old Knowland property at Logans Ferry, on the Allegheny river, for a country home. The grounds run down to the river, affording the finest of boating and bathing privileges. This is the property which the Westmoreland Country club has occupied several years. The East Liberty Y. M. C. A. has about 300 members and will open its country resort on Memorial day with a big picnic.

The Irish club of Pittsburgh is planning to build a handsome club house in the downtown district. A design will be considered shortly by the club and a committee will be named to look after the building.

This unusually long list of building permits was issued in the Pittsburgh yesterday:

EARLY VEGETABLES SHOW SHARP DECLINE

Southern States Start Produce North and Supply Brings Commodities in Reach of All.

Early vegetables got their first good jolt yesterday, nearly everything showing a decline. The fine weather of the past week has been prevalent all over the United States, and vegetation has shown rapid progress. This resulted in the Carolinas starting produce north, and already some has been started from Virginia. It is now only a matter of a week or 10 days until almost every variety of vegetable will come within the reach of all.

Cucumbers, new beets, tomatoes, potatoes, onions, kale and spinach showed a decline in price. The only change noticeable in fruits was in navel oranges, which are cheaper.

Poultry of all kinds also took a tumble of a cent a pound yesterday. This is due to the large amount daily arriving, and the smaller demand, induced by the increased demand and consumption of spring vegetables.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts bulletined yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 14 cars hay, 3 cars oats, 4 cars corn, 1 car straw, 1 car bran. Baltimore & Ohio, 13 cars hay, 1 car corn, 1 car oats. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 6 cars hay, 2 cars oats.

Receipts continue to be too small to supply the demand, and prices are stiff. First quality of hay is hard to get, and the price yesterday took another jump upward. Until the receipts get larger there will be no cheaper feed of any kind.

Fine Weather and Better Roads Encourage Oil Field Operators

Light wells are reported from all lower southwest districts. Should fine weather continue the roads will soon be in a condition that it will be possible to resume active operations. On Upper Bowman creek, Meade district, Marshall county, the Star Oil and Natural Gas Company has drilled its test on the Mary E. Boylan farm through the Gordon and has a light gasser. The Gordon was reached at a depth of 2,920 feet and was 20 feet in thickness and of a fairly good quality, but contained no oil. The gas was encountered at three feet in the sand. On Little Grave creek, in Liberty district, E. H. Jennings & Bros. have drilled their second test on the Robert Goshorn farm through the Gordon and found nothing but a little gas. Both were regarded as important test wells for their respective localities.

Near Ninevah, Greene county, Pa., the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 4 on the A. L. Evans farm and it produced 45 barrels the first 15 hours. No. 3 on the same farm was given a shot but failed to respond.

There is a slight improvement in development work on the Ohio side. The roads are in an improved condition, but still far from being in a state that will make it possible to resume active work for some time. In the Bursa grit district, near Woodsfield, Monroe county, the Pure Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the David Kindelberger farm into the Berea grit and has a show for a 20 or 30-barrel producer. In the Clear Fork district, in the same county, the Pabst Farm Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the E. Pabst farm through the Cow Run sand and has a show for a 15-barrel pumper.

Near Jerusalem, in the northwest part of the county, the Carter Oil Company has drilled its test on the Isaac Taylor farm through the Berea grit and has a duster in that formation. In the vicinity of Jerusalem there is more work under way than at any time during the past year. Just across the Monroe county line, in Belmont county, there is some test work starting. In the Wolf Creek district, Washington county, Cody & Co. have drilled their No. 3 on the W. W. Gadd farm through the shallow sand and have a show for an 8 or 10-barrel pumper. In the Lewisville district, Monroe county, W. G. Decker has a remarkable producer at his first test completed on the Elizabeth Decker farm. The well is producing from the Keener sand and was completed more than two months ago and since then has not fallen below 70 barrels a day. Other wells have been since completed in that locality, but none show the staying qualities of the No. 1 on the Fisher farm.

In the Lewisville district, Monroe county, the Unity Oil Company has completed and put its No. 5 on the Wheeler heirs' farm to pumping and has a 10-barrel producer.

The excitement that was created at Petersville, Butler county, a few weeks ago by the drilling in of a gusher by McCaldless & Co. on the Rose farm, has gone glimmering. It will be recalled that this well started to flow at the rate of 25 barrels an hour, when first drilled into the sand. The next well drilled, a few hundred feet from it, failed to find any production in the same formation.

On a part of the Rose farm the Homestead Oil Company has completed its test and has about a 10-barrel pumper. The old well, the first drilled, has been pumping for some time and is producing 30 barrels a day. Another well is due to get the sand in the same development in a few days. There is very little new work starting, the decline of the first well and the second coming in a duster, has shaken the confidence of those who were at first ready to take a chance on adjacent territory.

WANT TO KNOW ABOUT PENSIONS

P. R. R. Employes Wonder Whether Rules Exempt Executives.

TEST P. R. R. STEEL COACH

Will Robert Pitcairn be exempt from the pension rules of the Pennsylvania railroad? Will these rules allow executive officers, who are paid salaries and who are fellow-employes with the vast army of Pennsylvania men of every rank and file, to pass by the age limit? Must those rules apply only to men in the lower grades?

These are questions that are being discussed with much concern by Pennsylvania men. In the past the rules have applied to officers of the company, although men in what are known as executive offices have not been concerned. Robert Pitcairn will be the first to be eligible under these pension laws, which he helped to formulate.

"I have been wondering whether the pension rules will not apply to Uncle Robert, just as they do to every employe," said a Pennsylvania man yesterday. "I am not alone in this, either, for I have heard lots of others talking about the statement reputed to Mr. Pitcairn that he did not know whether the pension rules would apply to executive officers. I believe that Mr. Pitcairn will retire, however, but, if he doesn't and if these pension rules will not apply to other officers who are soon to retire, that will mean a bad thing for the pension system. Other men do not like idleness more than does Uncle Robert, President Cassatt or any other officer."

Banquet Guests Arriving.

Many guests who will be present tonight at the Traffic club of Pittsburgh's annual dinner, arrived in the city yesterday, and practically all the others are expected here this morning. A special train will leave Pittsburg & Lake Erie station at 10:45 o'clock and return to Baltimore & Ohio station at 2:05 after making a tour of the Ohio, Beaver and Shenango valleys. Visitors spent the day inspecting local roads and industrial plants. Among those who arrived yesterday were: President Yates, General Superintendent Noonan, Treasurer Dinkey, General Freight Agent Davis, General Passenger Agent Lapey and Superintendent Johnson of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh, General Freight Agent Ross, Assistant General Freight Agent Stevenson and Traveling Freight Agent Wolf of the Clover Leaf, who were accompanied from Toledo by General Freight Agent Groseclose of the "Katy," General Manager Clark of the Muncie & Western, W. H. Jeffrey and Traffic Manager Ryan of the National Supply Company at Toledo, the Clover Leaf private car arriving on the Wabash; General Freight Agent Hodgson of the Vandalia, General Freight Agent Smythe and General Agent Parsley of the Kansas City Southern, General Freight Agent Bliss, Assistant General Freight Agent Schryver and other officers of the Queen & Crescent, Division Freight Agent Campbell of the Atlantic Coast Line, General Freight Agent Longstreet of the Illinois Central, General Freight Agent Jernegan of the Boston & Philadelphia steamship line, General Agent Carson of the Mexican Central, Freight Traffic Manager Stith and Assistant Traffic Manager Lincoln of the Missouri Pacific, Commercial Agent Snively of the Lackawanna, and C. Hershey of the Cambria Steel Company.

No Word from San Francisco Roads.

No word was received in Pittsburgh yesterday from any railroad officers or traffic representatives who were located at San Francisco nor were any orders received regarding handling traffic in San Francisco territory. General Agent Herring of the Harriman lines and General Agent Lalk and Passenger Agent Shallaberger of the Santa Fe, it was expected, would receive instructions with respect to traffic conditions. No word was received at the local offices of initial or foreign lines. The only large convention scheduled for San Francisco this summer was the National Educational association's annual meeting, July 9-13. Whether this will be transferred to another city cannot yet be told, although it is expected that this will be done.

Traffic Again at Normal.

Coal, coke and manufactured products traffic is again at normal in this district, on all railroads. All coal mines on the Pennsylvania's main line and branches between Pittsburgh and Conemaugh were working full turn yesterday, coke was moving freely and steel and manufactured products were also in good bulk. There were calls for cars, which were met. Other roads also reported conditions to be excellent.

Wabash Officer Resigns.

Philip W. Coyle, senior assistant general freight agent of the Wabash, has resigned and will on May 1 become traffic commissioner of the Business Men's league of St. Louis. Mr. Coyle started as a station laborer on the Erie in 1865, serving that road for a number of years and also being identified with the United States Express Company later. He took service with the Wabash September, 1887, as a clerk in the general freight office. He became assistant general freight agent March 1, 1896.

New York to Chicago in 10 Hours.

Chicago to New York in 10 hours, carried in trains operated by electricity at 75 miles an hour over a route 742 miles long, is the dream of certain Americans who are backing the Co-Operative Construction Company, of which Jonathan D. Price of Chicago is president. Some right of way for this air-line railroad has been secured. The route would be about 150 miles shorter than the Pennsylvania's between the two cities.

Testing New Steel Passenger Car.

Thorough tests are to be made by the Pennsylvania with the first steel passenger coach that has just been completed at the Altoona shops. Mechanical department officers expect much from this type of car, and if it is successful steel cars will displace wooden ones in passenger service.

Railroad Notes.

Vice-President Worthington spent yesterday inspecting the Wabash lines in Ohio.

It is announced that T. W. Lee will retire as general passenger agent of the Lackawanna on July 1 anad will be succeeded by George A. Cullen.

Col. Fred H. Tristram, assistant general passenger agent of the Wabash, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh on business, also finding time to shake hands with many of his friends. He will leave for the west this morning.

E. H. Burrell, for 31 years agent of the Panhandle at Fort Washington, O., has been appointed agent at Crafton to succeed W. H. Rowland, who will become traveling passenger agent at Omaha.

W. S. Brooks has something good in store for him, if his friends carry out their program. Brooks is a clerk in the time-keeper's office of the Pennsylvania here. He was married at Steubenville last June to Miss Cline, daughter of Baggagemaster John Cline of the Pennsylvania. The wedding was a secret until yesterday.

General Superintendent Finney and Superintendent Duer returned from the Baltimore & Ohio time-card meeting at Baltimore, but they would not divulge what changes or new trains were decided on. They referred inquirers to Assistant General Passenger Agent Taggart, who will not return from the east until this morning.

INDIANS ATTACK PARTY.

EL PASO, TEXAS, April 19.—Details of the killing of Samuel Williams of this city in Sonora, Mexico, Saturday by Indians show he was with a party including Louis Giroux, Bert Cunningham, Mrs. Cunningham and child and a Mexican girl. Giroux and Cunningham are from Los Angeles and are officials of the Giroux mine at Carbo.

They were riding ahead and were attacked in a defile. Williams was killed at the first volley. Giroux fell back and helped Cunningham cover the retreat of the women and the baby. Later with an escort the men returned for Williams' body and found it mutilated.

BELIEVES STORY OF DEFENDANTS

Jury Acquits Two Men of Murder Charge After Being Out But Five Minutes.

SUES JAS. H. HOPKINS' ESTATE

Max Citron and Morris Younger were acquitted of a charge of murdering Samuel Goldstein, after the jury had deliberated less than five minutes. Both of the accused men worked in a grocery store in Coraopolis, and Citron was alleged to have stabbed Goldstein in the breast with a penknife in a street fight. Assistant District Attorney Grimes represented the state and A. C. Stein the defendants.

The commonwealth attempted to prove there had been hard feeling between the dead man and the two prisoners, and asked for a verdict of voluntary manslaughter in each case. The defense asked for acquittal on the ground of self-defense, alleging Goldstein had threatened the two defendants and had been lying in wait for them for over an hour before the fight started. The court said no evidence had been introduced implicating Younger in any way in the affair, and therefore he would have to be acquitted. But little, if any, criminal attempt had been shown on the part of Citron, and the highest verdict, if any, would have to be voluntary manslaughter.

Suit was entered by Edward Rahm against Anna M. Hopkins, widow of Former Congressman James H. Hopkins, and others to recover $75,623.59, with compound interest annually from August 7, 1875. Rahm claims that Congressman Hopkins was trustee of the estate of his father and mother, Edward and Virginia Rahm, and that he secured property amounting to $109,195.34, but that by an account filed during his lifetime he is given a credit of $33,631.94. Hopkins, it is alleged, never accounted for the balance of the estate and the suit is entered against his widow and heirs.

Orders were made by Judge Evans allowing James Wilson, formerly a police captain in Allegheny, to leave the workhouse from 12 noon until 5 p. m. tomorrow, and allowing Fred Ziringer, Jr., to leave the same prison from 12 noon until 5 p. m. Wilson, who is serving a sentence for extortion, is allowed to leave to visit Lila Hood, a half sister, who is dying of consumption. Ziringer, who was sent to the workhouse for assault and battery, was released to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

Executions issued: Real Estate Savings Bank, for use against James H. Graham, $8,215; Anna G. B. Donaldson against Robert M. Reynolds, $2,246; Pennsylvania Savings and Loan association against George Ogdon, $1,534; F. J. Rieve, trustee, against Arnold C. Frey, $2,106; James Scott, trustee, against George C. Smith, $1,426; Margaret B. Smithe against George C. Smith, $3,255.

Receiver Gets the Money.

Judge Miller filed an opinion in the estate of Clara S. Huddleston in which he decides that distribution on two judgments and a mechanic's lien on record in favor of T. Lee Clark shall be paid to the receiver of the Enterprise National bank. Judge Miller finds that the evidence clearly indicates that Clark in the use of the bank's money was acting in a fiduciary capacity whether with the bank's knowledge or not.

Negro Murderer Appeals.

An appeal to the supreme court has been filed in the case of Cornelius Combs, colored, who was convicted of the murder of Lizzie Dickson at McKeesport on February 8, 1905, and who was to have been executed next Tuesday with Bud Williams, another negro. Judge Brown issued an order allowing the appeal to act as a supersedias. Copies of the papers have been sent to Governor Pennypacker in order to have the death warrant withdrawn.

Refuses Writ for Hooe.

The petition of Clifford Hooe, the negro coachman, for a writ of habeas corpus to be issued in common pleas court No. 2 and made returnable in quarter sessions court, was refused yesterday. Judge Frazer wrote an exhaustive opinion on the question in which he says that the common pleas court has no authority to issue such a writ.

WOMEN WILL ASSIST.

Members of Baptist and Presbyterian Associations Will Collect for the Relief Fund.

Pittsburgh women are not behind their brethren in extending a helping hand to the San Francisco sufferers. The executive committee of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Pittsburgh Baptist association, at a meeting in the Fourth Avenue church yesterday, took up a collection for the relief fund. Each woman present was appointed a committee to present to the women of her congregation the pressing needs of the San Franciscans and to collect contributions.

Similar action was taken yesterday by the Women's Missionary society of the Pittsburgh Presbyterian presbytery.

To Build New High School.

The building committee of the Central Board of Education met yesterday and organized by electing John H. McIlroy chairman. Considerable discussion about the new high school took place and it was finally decided to appoint a subcommittee to prepare rules for the guidance of the committee. This subcommittee consists of Chairman McIlroy, Dr. W. H. McKilvey, T. B. Foley, F. B. Cameron and President D. L. Gillespie.

Play Attracts Clergy.

Many of Pittsburgh's most prominent ministers have expressed their desire to see "The Prince Chap," Edward Peple's beautiful play to be seen at the Belasco next week. When this play was produced at the Madison Square theater, New York, many of the most distinguished divines of the metropolis joined with the press in praise for this drama. "The Prince Chap" tells an interesting story of love, charity, unselfishness, kindness and purity.

PIRATE SHIP IS NOW IN A PRISON CELL

Chinaman With a Terrifying Name and His Associates Are Captured.

Sam Gee Wee, which means a three-masted Pirate ship that can ride the ocean storms and resist the attack of an army, is in a Central police station cell. He is better known in Pittsburgh as "Nigger Tom," and reputed to be high in the councils of the Hep Sing Tong or Highbinders' organization. Kuong On Wah, assistant chief of the Heps, and 18 of his comrades are also in cells. The party was arrested yesterday afternoon at 507 Second avenue, where the Poo How Ji Doi, or assassinating branch of the Heps, were meeting to determine how best to kill off the Pittsburgh Chinamen who refuse to pay them tribute.

Que Chow, the head of this friendly order, was in Pittsburgh this week to arrange the basis of tribute. Being defied by the Chinamen and notified by the police that he had better go away, he returned to New York, but before going he notified Ben Lee, the leader of the local Celestials, that he and his followers would be dead within a week. Twenty of his trusted followers remained in Pittsburgh to carry out Que's delightful plan.

When the police broke in upon the Highbinders yesterday they were in earnest conference. They were so taken by surprise that they did not attempt to escape. Every man was heavily armed. As it would be difficult to prove that the men were plotting wholesale murder they will be heavily fined today for smoking opium and gambling, the necessary outfits being found in the room, and for carrying concealed weapons. Then they will be ordered to leave town immediately, and the police will see that the order is obeyed. The Highbinders are being driven out of New York and want to effect a lodgment in this city, but this will not be allowed.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC ABATES; NEW CASE OF SPOTTED FEVER

But 18 cases of typhoid fever were reported in Pittsburgh yesterday, showing the disease is abating. A new case of cerebro-spinal meningitis developed yesterday—Tilburn Atwell, aged 8, of Elysian street. There are now nine cases of spotted fever in the municipal hospital.

Veterans to Elect Delegates.

The Allegheny War Veteran Republican association will meet in the Republican headquarters, East Diamond street, tonight, to elect three delegates and three alternates to the state convention to be held in Philadelphia on June 18. As the golden jubilee of the Republican party will be celebrated there at the same time, more than ordinary interest is being manifested in the choice of delegates.

Postpone "Sewickley Night" Recital.

Because it would conflict with the home talent production of Shenandoah at Sewickley, the "Sewickley Night" recital of the Kappeler Conservatory of Music, announced for tonight at Allegheny Carnegie hall, has been postponed until Monday, May 7. The program will chiefly consist of Nevin compositions.

AN ITEM OF INTEREST TO PEOPLE OF GREATER PITTSBURGH.

In speaking of the progress of the medical science in the past century many instances could be cited where a single discovery has been the means of saving many thousands of lives. For example might be mentioned the successful treatment of many infectious and contagious diseases by the different anti-toxins, the use of the X-ray in different fields, and even the successful results that are being obtained in cases of leprosy in the Far West by physicians of the Hawaiian Islands.

Among the latest discoveries in this line one which bids fair to do as much good for suffering humanity as any others is Dr. Henry St. John's "Ozo-Oxyerine" treatment.

This wonderful discovery is one based upon exactly the same principles as the above-mentioned, depending entirely on the blood as an agent to bring the "Ozo-Oxyerine" in contact with the disease lesions.

One can readily understand what a valuable method this is in case of internal affections, such as diseases of the Kidneys, Lungs, Liver, Brain, Muscular and Nervous Systems, and, in fact, all diseased tissues where the old methods of treatment have failed to cure.

It is proving daily that it is by far the most successful cure in Rheumatism, Gout, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Gastritis (or Stomach Trouble) and intestinal or Bowel Trouble.

Especially is this treatment useful in cases where the blood is of a weak quality and the circulation very sluggish. Everyone understands that if their blood is in this condition no organ in the entire body can do its work properly, and as a result of poor nourishment sooner or later the effects of this starvation is sure to present itself as some grave disease.

Many contagious diseases are contracted only because the blood lacks the necessary strength to resist it.

Many testimonials given to Dr. St. John are indeed hard to believe were it not possible to see the patients themselves, and even more proof by knowing them before they took his treatment and seeing the wonderful results accomplished.

SAVED FROM A NERVOUS COLLAPSE.

Following is a testimonial given by a well-known Pittsburgher who has friends in every vicinity, and will be of interest to many:

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 2, 1906.

In November of 1905 I noticed myself becoming nervous and my strength gradually failing me. Thinking this to be but a momentary weakness due to overwork, I paid no attention to myself and thought it was not necessary to seek medical aid. Within a few days I began to realize that I was bordering on a Nervous Collapse and sought the advice of several physicians. This continued, however, regardless of my medical treatment until I became in such a condition that I could not eat, sleep or attend to my business. In fact, I felt as if my days were numbered, and if means of relief were not soon obtained I would soon despair of ever hoping to enjoy good health again. Having been recommended to place myself in Dr. St. John's care I did so, and to my great happiness he gave me treatment for my condition which made a new man of me, and within so short a time as a week I could select well, eat well and felt all my strength return which I had lost, and it is my advice that should any one have my experience, they should lose no time. AS IT MAY MEAN THEIR LIVES, in placing their case in Dr. St. John's care. If they do this not only will they save money, but time and suffering, and I know they will never regret it.

Yours Respectfully,

(Signed) GEO. H. COLWES.

242 Atwood street, city.

Many of Dr. Henry St. John's most grateful patients are those who were a few months ago given up by their physician, specialists, friends and family, are today enjoying good health after taking the Ozo-Oxyerine. He is indeed a genius of medicine.

Dr. Henry St. John is a Pittsburgher by birth and has only been absent from this city during the term of years when he was receiving his medical education at the Jefferson Medical College, in Philadelphia, and his subsequent post-graduate courses in Europe. And it is from his thorough knowledge and vast experience that Dr. Henry St. John has been able to discover this life-giving substance, "Ozo-Oxyerine," which is entirely his own and is accomplishing such wonderful results.

Dr. St. John is located in suite Nos. 501-2 on the Fifth floor of the Nixon Theater Building, and his office hours are from 9 to 12, 1 to 5 and 6 to 8. Sunday and holidays, from 1 to 4.
